2 BLACKS RIDDLED BY POSSE

Sam McGruder and Wiley Brooks Shot to Death at Home of Park Commissioner Manley.

TAKEN FROM OFFICERS ON LAKEWOOD TROLLEY ON WAY TO THE CITY

Negroes Charged with Aiding in the Murder of County Policeman Heard—Were Chased Up Crew Street and Sought Refuge on Porch of the Manley Residence.

Two negroes, Sam McGruder, and Wiley Brooks, both about 30 years of age, were shot to pieces at 10:30 o'clock last night on the front porch of Park Commissioner Robert H. Manley, 491 Crew street, having been taken from an incoming Lakewood car, on which county officers were bringing them to the city on the charge of having been members of the negro band which last night assassinated County Policeman Heard.

Both negroes were taken to the Grady hospital, where it was reported early this morning that McGruder was sure to die, while Brooks had a chance to live.

According to Park Commissioner Manley, on whose porch the tragedy occurred, the work of the mob was short and swift. The murder of Officer Heard had aroused his friends to a high pitch of excitement. The vegeance of the mob was as unexpected, as it was swift.

Citizens all along Crew street had retired for the night, though many were resting uneasily as a result of the attack on the county policemen close by. Sometime after 10 o'clock firing was heard and coming toward the city caused the greatest alarm. Citizens rushed to their front doors, not knowing whether officers were pursuing criminals, or whether a negro mob was attacking the residents of the street.

The car on which the negroes were being brought to the city had been stopped by the mob at the corner of Crew and Jefferson streets. In the melee the negroes escaped from the officers, and ran up Crew, with the mob in full pursuit.

As the residence of Commissioner Manley was reached the negroes ran into the yard for refuge, evidently having given up hope of outrunning the outraged men in their wake. As the two black men reached the front steps both fell, and instantly the mob was over them pouring shot after shot into their prostrate bodies.

Thinking its work completed the mob dispersed as quickly as it had gathered. By the time Commissioner Manley reached his porch every sign of the mob had vanished. The negroes were thought already dead, but Mr. Manley asked for the hospital ambulance, and the blacks were taken to the Grady hospital, where it was found that both were still alive.

SIXTEEN BALLOTS TAKEN; DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

WAYNESBORO, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—The congressional convention for the first district, met here today and after sixteen ballots adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow. The convention seems hopelessly deadlocked and what the final result will be no one can forecast.

STATE TROOPS TO RAID BROWNSVILLE THIS MORNING

AT 1:30 o'clock this morning two companies of militia were camped in the neighborhood of Brownsville, the Governor's Horse Guard, under the command of Sergeant George were patrolling territory around that little town, and three more companies had been ordered out. At daybreak it is the intention of the military authorities to surround the spot absolutely and to raid it, arrest all negroes bearing arms, and send them to the police station. A special search will be made by the officers for those guilty of the attack on the county officers last night. Brownsville is a small place, covering about fifteen or twenty acres, with a reported population of some 1,500 negroes. It is in South Atlanta.

HE USED A DEAD BODY TO WARD OFF BULLETS

Fierce Battle Was Fought Between County Policemen and Negro Desperadoes.

HOW OFFICER FRANK JORDAN SOUGHT TO GET REVENGE

He Fired Three Rounds from His Pistol As He Warded Off Bullets with Dead Body of Officer Heard, His Partner and Friend.

A battle in the dark, a battle between officers of the law and negro assassins, a battle that meant death to policemen and death to desperadoes, was fought last night at Brownsville, a negro town 2 miles to the south of the city, and near Clark's university.

The officers with their prisoners were ambuscaded and the fight was to the death.

When the battle was at its height, one policeman fell dead and his companion, knowing that the officer beside him was dead, and, eager to avenge his death, used the dead body as a shield as he poured a shower of lead into the negro mob. Three rounds he fired and they were with telling effect for from the most reliable reports at least a dozen negroes lay dead when the battle was over.

Policeman Jordan in recognized as one of the coolest and bravest members of the county police force. Policeman Heard was his partner and also his close personal friend. When the treacherous negroes fired into the posse and Officer Heard fell dead, Officer Jordan released his hold upon the prisoner he had and stooped down to see if his faithful brother officer and friend still lived. Ascertaining that the assassin's bullet had done its deadly work he turned upon the negro mob and emptied his pistol. The negroes continued to return the fire, and Officer Jordan reloaded his pistol and using the dead body of Heard to ward off the bullets of the advancing negroes he fired shot after shot until his pistol was again emptied. For a third time he reloaded his weapon and sent a rain of lead into the faces of the negro outlaws.

Battle Was in Dark.

There was not even a light of the stars to throw a ray upon the batlle ground. It was cloudy, and the officers and their assailants were in total darkness.

The negroes were holding an incendiary meeting. One of them was making a speech, denouncing the white people and advising the negroes to take their revenge for the killing of negroes on Saturday night. Lieutenant Poole, of the county police force, organized a posse of nine county policemen and two citizens and advanced upon the meeting. The negroes were ordered to desist, and they refused to disperse.

Ten negroes were arrested, and the officers were on their way to take a trolley car to the city when the battle occurred. The officers were fired upon from the dark, and they returned the fire. At least a hundred shots were fired on both sides. The negroes had gone ahead of the officers and waylaid them.

At the first volley Officer Heard fell dead. He had been shot by a negro who had a single-barrel gun loaded with buckshot. He was close to Lieutenant Poole and Officer Jordan.

The negroes continued to fire after Heard had fallen, and then it was that Officer Jordan fired three rounds behind the dead body of his friend.

The negroes at last turned and fled, and the battle was over.

At a late hour last night the military had given up all hope of overtaking or capturing the negroes who had done the shooting, as the mob had taken to the woods and disappeared. The district was placed under close military patrol, and this will be kept up today.

In the battle Officer Jordan received a wound in the head. He was taken to the residence of Dr. O. N. Harden, a half mile from the scene of the battle, where he had his wound dressed. His injury is not believed to be dangerous.

FEDERAL TROOPS READY TO HELP

Seventeenth Regiment Reaches Atlanta by Forced March.

Colonel Van Orsdale Last Night Reported to Colonel Anderson and Offered Aid—Each Man Supplied With 100 Rounds.

By a forced march the Seventeenth infantry, United States army, which has been spending the summer at Camp Chickamauga, reached Fort McPherson last night, and is now ready to give aid to the state troops should that ever become necessary.

Colonel Van Orsdale, commanding the regulars, last night communicated with Colonel Clifford L. Anderson, of the Fifth Georgia infantry at military headquarters, corner Peachtree and Marietta streets, in Elkin-Watson's drug store, and reported the arrival of his regiment offering their services for the protection of the city should that needed.

The men have been supplied with 100 rounds of ammunition, and Colonel Van Orsdale assures that they will be ready to respond at the first call.

Colonel Anderson thanked Colonel Van Orsdale for his offer, but it is not thought at all probable that federal aid will be needed.

RIOT'S END ALL DEPENDS ON NEGROES

In Their Power to Stop Trouble or Bring on War of Extermination.

WHITES KEEPING QUIET EXCEPT WHEN ATTACKED OR PROVOKED BY BLACKS

Colonel Andersoon Says That Length of Present Crisis Depends Entirely on the Acts of the Negro Population — Their Interest To Preserve Peace.

"The present crisis in Atlanta will end when the negroes go to their homes and their work and cease attacks on the whites," said Colonel Anderson early this morning. "Yesterday the white people were perfectly quiet and every bit of the trouble was caused by the attacks of negroes on whites.

"If the negroes will stop their attacks no attacks will be made on them. Peaceable negroes are as safe in Atlanta as they ever were unless the lawless element of the race continues its misdeeds.

"It is to the interest of the negroes even more than to the interest of the whites to stop the present conflict at once. It is hoped that they will see the sluation and act accordingly."

Publication of Statistics.

Columbus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Recently the cotton warehousemen of Columbus refused to give out to the press the daily receipts, shipments and stocks of cotton on hand at the several warehouses, on the ground that this was giving the cotton mills too much information. They now agree to give out this information, provided the cotton mills will furnish daily statistics as to their stock of cotton. It is hardly probable that the mills will do this.

Phenix to Have Laundry.

Columbus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) In order to be independent of negro washerwomen, a big laundry is to be established in Phenix City, Ala., that will take in washing for families at special rates. The washerwomen of that city have practically organized and patrons who complain of missing garments or who hold up their pay until missing garments are returned are bboycotted.

UNTIL NIGHT QUIET RULED IN ATLANTA

Until Negroes Started Trouble, City Was Peaceful and Law-Abiding.

ONLY GROUNDLESS RUMORS KEPT GATE CITY EXCITED TILL AFTER NIGHT FELL

Officers Were Ordered To Keep the People on the Streets on Move. Small Boys Were Not Allowed Out Last Night.

Atlanta was its quiet business-like self again yesterday morning and afternoon, and it was not until the coming of night and the outbreak of the negroes on the outskirts that the Gate City grew excited again.

During the day there was little lawlessness. Then it was the blacks near the outskirts who kept the trouble alive and the citizens on the qui vive, fearing that their lives and the lives of their families might be endangered.

Every now and then somebody would start a report about negroes being lynched and white men and women being killed, but when these rumors were ferreted out it was ascertained that there was no foundation for them at all. People actually went to the public schools and carried their children home on the strength of wild rumors. One story circulated was to the effect that a 14-year-old white girl had been waylaid and brutally murdered on the Peachtree road while on her way to school.

Rumors Killed Many People.

Some of these wild rumors had as many as twenty white men killed in a bunch, and others were to the effect that negroes were arming by the thousands to make an attack on the soldiers.

When a citizen was reminded that the

DRIVEN FROM HOME BY ARMED NEGROES

FOURTEEN white people, composing four families who lived at 160 McDonough road, were driven out of their home at about 10 o'clock last night by a mob of negroes, and were forced to come to the police station for protection. The party spent the night there.

All of the fourteen people lived in one house, and the black mob gained entrance to this through the front, rushing into the house and firing on those assembled there. It was a miracle almost that no one was killed, for many shots at close range were fired by the negroes, and not one took effect. J. F. Wilson had a bullet to go through his trousers' leg.

All of the whites fled through the rear of the house, and succeeded in making their escape and reaching the city in safety. The negroes remained in the vicinity, held by a large number of white men who were attracted by the confusion.

The party, men, women and children, who spent the night at police headquarters were: James Ellison, aged 14; Miss Ora Petty, J. E. Hicks, Mrs. Mary Hicks, Pearl Hicks, aged 20; Grace Hicks, aged 11; Mamie Hicks, aged 12; Janie Hicks, aged 8; Nellie Hicks, age 6; Jessie Hicks, aged 4; Mrs. Anna E. Veal, Milliard Veal, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilson and Miss M. Echols.

TWELVE NEGROES KILLED.

While accurate reports are impossible, the number of negroes killed in the fight between the officers and blacks last night is reported by many as reaching twelve. Dr. O. N. Harden stated last night that he saw bodies lying all over the ground. It is certain however that four negroes were killed.

WOMAN SOON TO BECOME MOTHER KILLED INSTANTLY BY FRIGHT WHEN BLACKS WERE LYNCHED

BY far the most dramatic incident of the riotous days on which Atlanta has fallen was the tragic death at 10:30 o'clock last night of Mrs. Robert C. Thompson, of 495 Crew street, who was frightened to death, dying of heart failure, when the two negroes, McGruder and Brooks, were shot to pieces on the porch of the Manley home, next door.

Mrs. Thompson, who was soon to become a mother, was the wife of Robert C. Thompson, who is connected with the Excelsior steam laundry. She was 35 years of age, and in addition to her husband is survived by two sons, 7 and 10 years old.

When the mob chased the negroes into the yard of the Manley home Mrs. Thompson ran out of her home, having been attracted by the sound of firing and viewing the terrible scene which was laid before her, fell dead. At first it was thought that she had only fainted. Every effort was made to restore her, but Dr. Claude Smith, who was called, pronounced her beyond any chance of recovery, her heart having ceased to act.

banks and Buran came over from the direction of East Point, and joined a posse of seven county officers, and three citizens under the command of Lieutenant Poole, at Henderson's crossing. The posse then rode down the Jonesboro road to what is known as the Jonesboro crossing, about a half mile beyond Henderson's crossing. At this point a large number of negroes had gathered, and were holding an open air meeting, at which many incendiary speeches were being made. Several of the negroes in the crowd were armed with guns, and these, some eight in all, were disarmed and handcuffed.

With their prisoners under guard the officers started for the electric car line to bring their prisoners to the city. They had proceeded but a short distance when, from the dark, without the least warning, a deadly fusillade was poured into the posse. Officer Heard was instantly killed and fell dead from his horse, riddled with bullets. Officer Eubanks was struck in the thigh by several buckshot, and a bullet grazed the forehead of Officer Buran. The officers returned the fire of the negroes, killing several, but just how many is not known. Officed Buran used a gun he had taken from one of the negro prisoners.

Officer Heard's body was taken to the Lakeview car line, and brought to the city, and Officer Buran accompanied Officer Eubanks to the Grady hospital, where his wounds were dressed. Officer Jordan was not seriously enough injured to cause him to be brought to the hospital. Officer Buran had his wound dressed at the hospital, and returned to the scene of the fight.

After the officers returned the fire of the negroes, they fled, and went into what is called the "hollow," a swamp nearby. Four of the negro prisoners escaped, and four were brought to the city, and lodged in the Tower. Their names are Rufus Wilson, Ed Lockett, — Smith and Dover Stalworth.

The weapon with which Officer Heard was killed was a single-bareled shotgun, loaded with buck shot. It was brought to the city andturned ever to Policeman Childs, and is now at the drug store of Brown & Allen, at the corner of Whitehall and Alabama streets.

The bodies of two dead negroes were found in Brownsville after the battle. There may be more as the negroes in that locality and the exact number cannot be ascertained until the police make a full investigation today.

Kentucky Railroad Will Have to "Show Up" All Waybills, Etc.

Frankfort, Ky., September 24.—In the United States court for the eastern district of Kentucky, today, Judge Cochran entered an order continuing as an interlocutory injunction the restraining order granted some weeks since against the Kentucky railroad commission restraining it from enforcing new rates promulgated by it for transportation of freight on interstate shipments, pending final adjudication of the authority of the commission to make such rates. In granting the order, which was an agreed one between counsel for the state and for the railroad corporations affected, the court stipulated that on and after October 1, next, all waybills and bills of lading made out by the companies shall show the points of origin and destination, consignor and consignee, character of articles, weight, rate, freight and total charges, the waybills to be preserved until final adjudication of the cases.

TALK OF MELDRIM AS "DARK HORSE"

He May Break First Congressional District Deadlock

It Seems Certain That Neither Brannen Nor Sheppard Can Win, and Sentiment Is Said to Favor Peter W. Meldrim.

Savannah, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—A well defined impression has gone abroad in Savannah that Peter W. Meldrim, of this city, will be the "dark horse," upon which the congressional convention at Waynesboro will agree in the event, which seems certain, that neither J. A. Brannen nor W. W. Sheppard is nominated.

For several hundred ballots the convention has voted fruitlessly on Sheppard and Brannen, every vote resulting in a tie of eighteen to eighteen. With some degree of postiveness it is asserted that the deadlock can be broken only by the presentation of the name of General Meldrim.

He is a distinguished lawyer, known personally and by reputation throughout the district, and it is thought highly probable that he will be the nominee.

NEGROES HOLD UP WHITES.

Ed. Schless Was Held Up by Negroes and Searched Yesterday.

On Summer Hill a crowd of negroes gathered within a block of the Summer Hill school house nearly the entire day. At no time was the crowd large, but in reserve there were more negroes than were in the opening as was shown by the frequent changes in faces.

More than one white man moving alone was held up by the vidette group, it might be termed, during the day, but with a single exception there was no trouble.

Ed Schloss, a collector for the Home Insurance Company, was brought to a stands till a block below the school house, and asked his business in that section. There were a half dozen negroes in the party, and as they gathered close about him he was asked if he had a pistol. Schloss declared that he did not. Quickly one of the crowd began searching him. Papers in his pocket confirmed his statement as to his occupation. Then as the search revealed that he had no pistol one of the party called out:

"He's got no pistol! Let him go!"

A mere lad almost, Schloss was frightened by the hold up. But as the crowd about him separated to allow him to pass he gave expression to his opinion. Instantly he was cornered by big burley negro, who began pounding him. Schloss managed to break away, and took a rapid stride down the hill. The crowd followed him with a shower of stones, but only one struck him, that one hitting him on the back of the head, making an ugly contusion.

Hiram Myers, collector for Marson, a Mitchell street furniture house, was held up, too, and was searched for weapons. Myers had nothing but his bills, and was allowed to move on.

During the day something like a half dozen events of the kind indicated took place, and were reported, but with Schloss alone it appears there was anything like an assault.

METHODIST MINISTERS DEPLORE MOB ACTION

At the meeting of the Methodist ministers yesterday morning the following resolutions on the action of the mob were passed:

"Whereas, The peace and good order of our city has been disturbed, and its fair name dishonored by a lawless mob; the lives of the innocent have been taken and our population has been terrorized. Therefore be it

"Resolved first, That we deplore and denounce the outrages on white women which have justly aroused the bitterest feelings of our people, and express our deepest sympathy with the victims of the violence of black brutes.

"Second, That we condemn the spirit of lawlessness that would not only visit vengeance to the guilty, but wrath upon the innocent, and call upon all right-thinking people by sentiment and action to secure respect for law and regard for human rights and divine justice.

"Third. That we express our profoundest sympathy with the innocent sufferers of the recent outbreak of violence in our city.

"Fourth. That we deplore the slow and weak administration of justice on the part of the courts and the hesitating manner of the guardians of the public peace in suppressing dens of vice and hotbeds of violence.

"Fifth. That we deprecate all sensational presentations of instances of assault and attempted assault, thereby inflaming passion and inciting to violence.

"Sixth. That we place nearly all acts of lawlessness on the part of both races to the sale and use of intoxicating drink and call upon all our citizens to work and pray for the suppression of the liquor traffic.

"Seventh. That it is our profound conviction that the authorities should prosecute to the fullest extent of the law the instigators and leaders of the murderous mob.

"Eighth. That as ministers of the gospel, charged with the forming and strengthening of public opinion, we will renew our diligence in condemning wrong in every form, and in calling our people to obedience of the laws of God and the state."

ATLANT QUIET DURING DAY; NIGHT BROUGHT BLOODSHED

newspapers were not publishing any of the stories that were in circulation, he remarked:

"Oh, the papers are suppressing the news in order to stop the panic."

The closed saloon did much to put a quietus on the excitement. Without a Monday morning drink a number of excitable citizens became calm and there was a dearth of riot talk from this cause in many quarters. The negroes were unable to get up any false courage without liquor, and they, too, kept quiet and remained at home.

Decatur Street's Siesta.

A walk down Decatur street yesterday afternoon was enough to reassure the most nervous person. Monday afternoon is always a great day on Decatur street, even greater than Saturday, for on the latter day the negroes have buying to do, but on Monday—"blue Monday," they call it—the street is always crowded with negroes who have nothing to do but to loaf and drink. On any Monday afternoon there can always be counted at least 1,500 idling, half-drunk negroes.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by actual count there were only eight negroes on Decatur street from the Kimball house corner to the police barracks. Just exactly eight, and they were hustling to "beat the band," as they say. It was nothing short of a revolution, this thing of Decatur street on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock having only eight negroes on it.

On Peters street the same wonderful metamorphosis had taken place.

Last night the "move on" order was rigidly and strictly enforced. Only two excuses for stopping were allowed—to wait for a trolley car or to tie your shoe, and you had to be in a hurry about the latter.

Were Kept on the Move.

Mayor Woodward and Chief Jennings were on the principal streets from dark until 9 o'clock, and they kept continuously after the policemen to keep the people on the move.

"Don't give them time to stop and talk about the riot," said the mayor, "and you won't have much more trouble."

Captain English, member of the police board, was with the chief, and together they made a short tour of the center of the city and spoke to the patrolmen on duty.

Men who had come downtown to look around and see what was going on had to keep going on themselves, and not having any place, like Noah's dove, whereon to light, they kept going until they landed at home, their own ark of safety.

"Hie, there, young man," you would hear a wrathful cop call out to a young man who was standing on a street corner "keep on the move."

"Aye, aye, cap," would be the reply and the young man would "get an immediate move on himself."

This enforcement of the "move on" order was considered one of the wisest things done by the police to keep down any more trouble last evening.

Small Boys Had to Hike.

No boys were allowed on the streets last night unless they carried permits from the police authorities. The police seemed to think that boys had much to do with the starting of the riot Saturday night, and the order was issued that no minor could stay out last night after dark. It was a sort of temporary curfew law, rigged up for the occasion. It worked well. There were none of the "does your mother know you are out" class of citizens to be seen on the streets after dark. A number of boys who were out were stopped, and unless they exhibited a pass, they were given sufficient time to get home, and if seen again were arrested.

By 8 o'clock the streets were about deserted, and the city looked as if it was enjoying a quiet and peaceful Sabbath day.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon some rioting on the part of negroes in the fourth ward was reported. It was found that four negroes had attacked two white men and had run two white women from their homes. This is said to have resulted from an organization of a small band of lawless negroes who had decided that they would retaliate on the whites for Saturday night's doings. The trouble was quickly suppressed, and no other case of the kind was heard of.

The police were kept busy last night chasing down false reports. These were kept up until the people went home and retired. The "liar was then no longer abroad," the false rumors ceased and the police had some rest.

3,620 NEGROES LYNCHED IN U. S. DURING 25 YEARS

NEW YORK, September 24.—The World today prints a statistical story which avers that 4,000 persons have been put to death without warrant of law in the United States in the last twenty-five years. Ninety-five per cent of them, it declares, were negroes charged with assaults on white women. The methods of execution comprised hanging, shooting, flogging and burning.

EUROPEAN PLAN FOR KIMBALL

Lack of Waiters Has Caused Big Change in the Hotel's Operations.

The Kimball yesterday placed upon the register counter a placard announcing that for the present, a day or two at least, the hotel had gone upon the European plan.

And that is due, the placard states, to the existing conditions.

When the troubles started Saturday night Mr. Zimmer took personal care of his waiters and other help. Those who were not willing to go home were given care by the hotel, and up to the noon or lunch service the waiters were on hand to respond. Yesterday afternoon some of them went upon the streets, and from old friends heard rumors which were not conducive to peace of mind.

Before the dinner hour Mr. Zimmer was informed by his head waiter that the men were afraid to be seen upon the streets as they were passing from the hotel to home and back again. Realizing that meals could not be served without necessary dining room help, Mr. Zimmer has placed upon his counter a poster informing the patrons of the house that a European service only would exist until a bulletin presents a change.

That change, however, will come just as soon as the present conditions have become normal.

Both parties are now in the county jail at Buchanan. Additional arrests are probable and ugly disclosures are possible.

NO CENSURE FROM GOV. VARDAMAN

Mississippi's Chief Executive Speaks of Atlanta's Riot.

"I Wish It Were Different, but I Have No Word of Censure for the Man Who Kills That Character of Destroyer of His Home," Says Governor.

New Orleans, September 24.—Special dispatches from Jackson, Miss., contain a statement on the negro problem as it appears in Atlanta, given out today by Governor Vardaman. The governor's statement was prompted by questions wired him by northern newspapers. It is in part as follows:

"In answer to your question: Cannot terror of the law and stern justice be made just as effective as the terror of rioting and mob rule?"

"It can be, provided the fifteenth amendment shall be repealed and the fourteenth modified so as to permit the people of Georgia to legislate to suit the moral qualities and intellectual acquirements of the negro."

Dealing with the crime of rape, Governor Vardaman says:

"Nine tenths of the negroes, regardless of their station or vocation in life, sympathize with the brute in his aspirations for social equality and while they would not perpetrate the crime, they will give the criminal all the protection from the penalty of the law within their power. The man whose daughter, wife or friend, is outraged will not consent to have the victim brought into court before the gaping crowd.

"I wish it were different, but I have no word of censure for the man who kills that character of destroyer of his home."

"REPUBS." SHOW MUCH ACTIVITY

Alabama Members of Party Actually Showing Fight.

Montgomery, Ala., September 24.—(Special.)—The republican activity in Alabama is so marked at this time as to attract attention from everybody, and it begins to look like the members of that party are really going to make some sort of a fight before the November elections. The main thing with the leaders seems to be a desire to get some real republican in principle with a standing in the business world to lead what is sure to be a forlorn hope, but at the same time may be a beginning of organized effort along practical lines to do something in a political way outside of distributing the spoils.

To this end there has been called in Birmingham today a conference of the leaders to urge James Aaron, a leading literary man and financier of that city, to make the race for governor as the nominee of the party. C. H. Scott, national committeeman, went up from Montgomery, and was met in Birmingham by leading men of the party from over the state. If Mr. Bowron should accept the followers of Mr. Roosevelt, and his organization would feel that they had done a great deal to refute the charge that the entire effort of the party is to rake in the offices. A high-toned Christian gentlemen as he is, it is pointed out, would not do anything or allow anything done that is not regular and legitimate.

It is expected that in the showdown most of the influence in Alabama would go to Mr. Taft for president.

CITIZENS ARM FOR DEFENSE

Buy Weapons to Protect Their Families and Homes.

Sheriff Nelms and Militia Authorities Were Deluged Yesterday With Requests for Permits.

While it was believed by almost every one in Atlanta as early as noon of yesterday that there was not the slightest ground for apprehension of further trouble between the races, large numbers of the better class of citizens—the conservative, home-owning citizens of Atlanta—made every preparation for any possible contingency that might arise last night. In fact, these preparations began Sunday afternoon, when the leading hardware stores were opened for the purpose of allowing citizens vouched for by the civil and military authorities to purchase arms and ammunition for defensive purposes.

Many provided themselves with arms Sunday afternoon and night, and those who were not already so provided made it the first duty of the day to secure orders from some official authorizing merchants to sell them arms and ammunition. Many had the forethought to have arms laid aside early in the morning, obtaining the necessary order afterwards. As early as noon yesterday the supply or revolvers with the exception of a few cheap and unreliable ones, had been entirely exhausted, and a good revolver could not be obtained for love or money.

All day long yesterday Sheriff Nelms was busy writing orders authorizing merchants to sell arms and ammunition to the persons named in the orders, and after dinner he was compelled to call upon his assistants to aid him in serving the waiting throng. These orders were not issued indiscriminately, either. Before one could procure an order it was necessary that he should be personally known to the sheriff or his assistants as a law-abiding citizen, or be vouched for as such by some person known to the officers.

The extent of the purchases of arms and ammunition may be surmised when it is said that Sheriff Nelms stated yesterday afternoon that from dinner hour to 5 o'clock he and his assistants had issued more than one thousand orders for arms and ammunition, and at 6 o'clock in the afternoon the crowd continued to come. One prominent hardware store sold $16,000 worth of arms and ammunition between Saturday night and yesterday at noon.

As has been stated, the men who procured these orders were of the best type of the responsible citizenry of Atlanta, the difference between them and the crowd of irresponsibles who participated in the rioting of Saturday night being as clearly defined as the difference between day and night.

One and all declared that the arms and ammunition were being procured purely for defensive purposes; that should the negroes make any attack upon any residence in the neighborhood in which each lived, they were prepared to repel it at once. It was also stated that irresponsible white boys and hoodlums attempting the destruction of private property in the event of any excitement arising, would be summarily dealt with. Many announced that they had combined with their neighbors to patrol the residence sections in which they lived. While not believing this step to be necessary, no precautionary measure in the interest of the safety of homes is being overlooked.

BULLETS FLEW AT MULLET SUPPER

Negro Festivities Broke Up With Fusillade of Shots, One Killed.

Americus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) A negro mullet supper last night on a plantation near Americus had the usual finale. The lights were shot out by some drunken negro with a revolver, whereupon the shooting became general. One woman caught a stray bullet in the neck and was killed instantly, while another was shot through the arm.

No arrests have been made as yet. Such killings are common during the cotton picking reason here.

Mercer Takes Up Regular Work.

Macon, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—The regular duties of the fall session were taken up at Mercer university this morning, and more than 300 men have already reported for duties in the various departments. The attendance in the literary department has been unusually large. Every member of the senior class has returned and taken up the work, and in all the lower classes the attendance of new men has made President S. T. Y. Jameson and the heads of all the departments very glad.

Within the next week all the new men will have arrived. There are several yet to come to begin the work in the department of the law and the department of pharmacy. Both the departments will be crowded, and altogether there will be one of the largest student bodies ever seen in this institution.

Large Attendance at Wesleyan.

Macon, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—President Dupont Guerry, of Wesleyan college announces today that he has more than twenty young ladies entered for the work of the year than have ever attended a session in this institution before in its history. The number has gone above 400, and the matriculation increases, six new students having gone in this morning.

Regular duties in all the departments of Wesleyan have been taken up, and the work of the fall session is now well under way. The faculty of music is soon to announce a very attractive and interesting programme of music for the first musical recital of the fall. There will be many of these before the season is over.

Wesleyan starts out this session with the distinction of having the largest attendance of any southern institution of its character. Every member of the board of trustees is pleased, and President Guerry feels that Wesleyan is soon to be one of the leading institutions of the entire country.

MAN HIT BY ROCK LIKELY TO DIE

Young Reagin May Become Murderer All About $2.50.

Lithonia, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) Sunday morning the 23rd inst., Henry Turner, a prominent man was hit in forehead by a rock thrown by Olin Reagin, a youth about 18 years of age, which fractured Turner's skull. Drs. Bell, Jones and Gwinn performed an operation on Mr. Turner yesterday afternoon and removed a piece of his skull about the size of a silver dollar. Turner is in a critical condition and the doctors say the chance for his recovery is about even.

It seems the trouble arose over the sum of $2.50, which Mr. Turner's boy and Olin Reagin, the son of Burt Reagin, had spent in Atlanta.

The fathers of the boys, Henry Turner and Burt Reagin, met in the road Sunday morning, and was discussing the matter, and a fight arose, and it is reported that Turner knocked Burt Reagin down with a rock, and then it was the son of Burt Reagin (Olin Reagin) threw the rock that hit Turner.

Smith Threatened by Negroes.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—George C. Smith, the Vineville merchant who shot and killed Black Morton, the negro driver on Armour & Company's meat wagon in front of his store last Monday morning, called at the office of Sheriff Robertson this morning and reported that a negro meeting last night on Pleasant Hill had resulted in a resolution to kill him. The statement made to Smith was that the body of negroes who were bent on revenge had determined to lynch him. He wanted protection and was assured that he had all he wanted.

ALLOW TROOPS TO LEAVE CITY

Five Companies of Militia Returned Home Yesterday.

Colonel Anderson Has Twelve Companies in the City, and Says the Situation Is Well Under Control—Automobiles Used.

That Colonel Anderson, commanding all of the troops mobilized in Atlanta, was firm in his belief that the situation was fully under control was proved by the fact that five of the out-of-town companies were permitted to return home. While these five companies were permitted to leave Atlanta, Colonel Anderson stated last night that he still had twelve companies, or a full regiment, for guard duty in Atlanta.

Last night he said that quiet prevailed generally throughout the city but that he has held the twelve companies in order that any possible trouble might be taken care of immediately. He stated that this number was not only sufficient to take care of the city, but quite sufficient to hold a number of troops in reserve at the armory subject to immediate call and ready to be instantly pressed into service to meet any emergency.

Automobiles are being rapidly pressed into service and have proved of the greatest help in the work of guarding and patrolling Atlanta. Several prominent citizens have offered their machines to the service of the military headquarters at the Elkin-Watson drug store and these offers are being gratefully accepted. By means of these machines, with the first report or rumor of trouble in any section of the city, one or more of these automobiles are filled with armed soldiers and a dash for the scene of the reported trouble is made. By this means but a few minutes was required to reach any section of Atlanta and the general effect and morale of several armed soldiers sweeping on to the scene was excellent.

So many are the reports and rumors which come into the drug store of the Elkin-Watson Company, that armed men now guard the doors and to secure entrance to the store, the would-be purchaser must state plainly that he wishes to enter for the purpose of buying. Dr. W. S. Elkin, Jr., not only refused to complain of the state taking his central location for headquarters, but has instructed his clerks and has also placed himself and his telephones at the service of Colonel Anderson and his associate officers for the facilitating of the work of having these messages promptly delivered.

The companies which were permitted to return to their homes yesterday were two companies from Macon and one company each from Griffin, Barnesville and Jackson.

Many members of the state troops on duty last night stated that they were in good shape but sleepy, the enlisted men claiming that most all of them had had but four hours' sleep since being called on duty by the riot call Saturday night. Many of the officers stated that they had been on duty continuously since that time and expected to be for many hours to come.

The companies, twelve in number, on duty last night were seven companies of the Fifth Georgia of Atlanta, one company from Marietta, one company from Cedartown, one company each from Rome and Lindale and the Governor's Horse Guard and the Governor's Light Artillery of Atlanta.

On every side the work of the men in khaki has been praised by citizens in all parts of Atlanta. Mayor Woodward said yesterday that the small pittance paid for the militia by the common council each year had been more than compensated by the work done by the military companies on Saturday night alone. The soldiers themselves are hoping that this sentiment will grow sufficiently for their appropriations in city council to be increased.

RACES MUST HAVE UNDERSTANDING

Gov. Jelks, of Alabama, Talks on Atlanta's Riot.

"The Two Races Can Never Get on Until There Is an Understanding on Part of Both to Make Common Cause Against Criminals," Says Governor.

Montgomery, Ala., September 24.—(Special.)—Speaking of the Atlanta riot Governor Jelks, today said:

"The lynching of any person, for whatever crime, is inexcusable anywhere and it is a defiance of orderly government. But the killing of innocent persons, under any provocation is infinitely more terrible, and yet innocent people are likely to die when a mob's terrible lust is once aroused.

"The lesson is this: No good citizen can afford to defy the statutes, no matter what the provocation be. The innocent frequently suffer, and it is my observation more usually suffer than the guilty.

"The white people of the south incriminate the whole colored race on the ground that even the better elements lend no assistance whatever in ferreting out criminals of their own color. The respectable colored people must learn not to harbor their criminals, but to assist the officers in bringing them to justice. This is the larger crime and it provokes such atrocious offenses as the one at Atlanta.

"The two races can never get on until there is an understanding on the part of both to make common cause with the law abiding against criminals, of any color. It is lamentably true that this sentiment does not control the negro race in the south. There must be a better understanding or I well know what will happen.

"As far as Alabama is concerned, we have been for a few years, or during my time in this office, almost free from this crime of lynching. Our people are forbearing and for the most part law-abiding."

MANY NEGROES RECEIVE FINES

Were All Arrested as Results of the Recent Riots in the City.

Will Mobley, a negro, was arrested during the last two days' riot for attacking a young white man, who was selling newspapers on Piedmont avenue, near Houston street. Judge Broyles fined him $10 and costs yesterday afternoon.

Lonzo Humphries, another negro, was taken into custody by Officer Williams. He was standing in front of a saloon Saturday night with four other negroes. He told them to move on, but they refused, and made some impudent remark. Lonzo was fined $5 and costs.

Ed Smith, a negro, was fined $15.75 for swearing about the white people in a saloon on Decatur street Saturday night. Charlie Lester was another who received the same fine for the same offense.

On Saturday night, just before the riot started, Ed Cox, a negro man, ran against E. C. Reynold, a white man, and knocked off his hat. Judge Broyles gave him 30 days in the stockade without a fine, and bound him over for assault and battery under $1,000 bond.

Ellington Richardson was assessed $10 and costs for going through the streets making loud threats about what he was going to do to the white people.

THIRTY DAYS AND NO FINE

Rioters Were Bound Over by Recorder Broyles Yesterday.

Thirty days in the city stockade without the privilege of paying a fine and a $1,000 bond for rioting was the extreme sentence which was given the rioters of last Saturday night by Recorder Broyles yesterday morning and afternoon.

Fifteen of the forty young men arrested were arraigned at the morning and afternoon session of the recorder's court yesterday. In each case the sentence was the same.

There was a large number of negroes in the courtroom who witnessed the trial of the rioters.

The young men arraigned and sentenced to the stockade for thirty days by the recorder yesterday were:

W. P. Carter, R. L. Hurst, M. J. Ware, Robert Holt, R. G. Moore, T. F. Clements, W. C. Livsey, C. C. Lee, Ernest Naylor, J. D. Brooks, R. T. Dorsey, E. G. McDaniel, I. H. Carr, Owen Perry, and Sam Lochridge.

All the defendants pleaded not guilty to rioting. They were convicted on the testimony of policemen who stated that they saw them in the crowd of rioters.

JUDGE WARD DIED YESTERDAY.

He Was One of Clayton County's Most Influential Citizens.

Jonesboro, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Today at noon Judge William R. Ward, one of Clayton county's old and influential citizens, breathed his last here, after an illness of several weeks, from peritonitis. Judge Ward has been prominently connected with the public affairs of his county and town for many years, having been mayor of the city of Jonesboro, and in 1888-89 he represented Clayton county in the legislature. He was about 62 years old. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Jessie McKown and Mrs. P. L. Brown, both of Jonesboro. The funeral will occur at the Baptist church at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and the interment will be in Johnson's cemetery.

TWO NEGROES ARE INDICTED

Grand Jury Returns True Bills Charging Assault.

Robert Branham and Lucius Frazier Will Have to Face Trial in the State Courts for Attempted Assaults Some Time Ago.

Convening yesterday morning for the specific purpose of hearing evidence in the cases of Robert Branham and Lucius Frazier, two negroes who have for some days been confined in the Tower on charge of having attempted criminal assaults upon white women, the grand jury returned true bills of indictment against each of them for the offense of assault with intent to commit rape.

Branham was charged with the offense of assaulting the Misses Lawrence several weeks ago near their home at Copenhill. The negro made the attempt while they were picking flowers in a strip of woods near their home at 9 o'clock in the morning. He choked Miss Mabel Lawrence and then brutally beat her aunt, Miss Ethel Lawrence, nearly knocking out one of her eyes and fearfully wounding her. He was foiled in his attempt only by reason of Miss Mabel's escape, seeing which he took to flight before he had accomplished his purpose. He was positively identified by the Misses Lawrence as their assailant.

The other negro, Frazier, was indicted for attempted assault on the night of September 20 upon Miss Orrie Bryan at her father's home, 232 Courtland street, while her father, Thomas L. Bryan, was away from home. The negro, after divesting himself of a portion of his clothing, entered the house and Miss Bryan saved herself from his clutches by entering a closet and locking herself in.

Miss Mabel Lawrence and Miss Bryan were the witnesses who appeared in these two cases, the only criminal matters taken up yesterday.

Will Be Tried in October.

Following the action of the grand jury yesterday in indicting two negroes for assault with intent to rape, a conference was held between Judge Pendleton, Judge Roan and Solicitor General Charlie Hill, on the question as to when the trials of these negroes should take place.

It was decided as a result of this conference, not to bring these negroes to a trial this week, as was at first intended, but to try them at the next regular term, October 15.

"This was thought best," Solicitor General Hill said last night, "because of the recent troubles in Atlanta, and the present inflamed state of public mind. We thought for these reasons it would be better and safer to try them at the next term, October 15, and they will most certainly be tried at that time."

EXCITED OVER ATLANTA RIOT

Many Columbus Negroes Fail to Report for Work.

Cause of Their Absence Said to Be the Trouble in Atlanta—Many Conflicting Stories Are Circulated.

Columbus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) The negroes of Columbus have been excited over the news from Atlanto, but it is believed that the effect of the lynchings there will be salutary upon them instead of inciting them to trouble.

The only effect of the trouble in Atlanta upon the negro population here so far as directly affecting the white people and the business interests of Columbus is that quite a number of them failed to go to their work this morning. The cotton mills in the city employ a limited number of negroes to do the rougher work, and reports from five mills today showed that twenty-five negro employees were out.

Exaggerated reports of the Atlanta trouble were circulated even among the white people, the number of persons killed being variously estimated at from thirty to five hundred. In the Alabama suburbs ninety was the favorite number, this being based on "reliable" telephone messages from Atlanta.

280 DEPUTIES AID OFFICERS

Sheriff Nelms Yesterday Swore in Large Number of Extra Men.

Sheriff Nelms yesterday swore in 280 deputies, extra men, to aid in quelling any possible disorder that may arise during the present state of excitement in the city.

One hundred and fifty of these men were sworn in at West End, fifty of whom are patroling the streets of West End tonight. These term themselves vigilant committees.

The sheriff says that if he needs more men he will swear them in from the heart of the city. Atlantans have never failed to respond to his every call and have shown extraordinary willingness to help the authorities in their efforts to bring the city once more into a state of peace.

"THE CLANSMAN" BARRED BY MACON

City Authorities Feared Play Would Cause Trouble.

Mayor Smith Acted Because of the Many Protests Made Against the Presentation of the Play at This Time by Conservative Citizens.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—One of the strongest protests in the history of the Central City was made this morning by leading citizens against the presentation of "The Clansman" here tomorrow night, and through the efforts of Mayor Smith and Manager D. G. Philips, of the Grand opera house, the play will be taken off the bill boards and the company will continue to some other city for the next show. The strong feeling which has been manifested in Macon on account of the Atlanta outrages has caused alarm, and it was predicted that if "The Clansman" is shown here tomorrow night, as booked, there would be some trouble or demonstration against the negro.

Mayor Smith and Manager Philips put in a protest early and went immediately into a conference with the management of "The Clansman" in an effort to stop the show here. The Macon Telegraph, in a single-column editorial this morning, strongly advised against the presentation of the show here during the present season of excitement, and all efforts together stopped the attraction.

That Macon is strongly wrought up over the situation is clearly evident everywhere. The play has come in for its share of the discussion along with the events in Atlanta, and leading citizens have made strong protests against "The Clansman" to all public officers. The play is off at least for the present.

RIOTING FEARED BY SAVANNAH

Several Minor Clashes Occurred Between Races.

Guards on the Cars to Prevent Trouble Over the Production of "The Clansman"—Police at Negro Meeting to Prevent Incendiary Talk.

Savannah, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Savannah was in a state of some excitement tonight over the race situation, there being apprehension that the Atlanta rioting and the presentation of "The Clansman" here would prove a combination to excite the negroes to deeds of violence. So decided was this apprehension that the commanders of the local military companies gave their subordinate officers orders to keep in touch with all of the members of their commands, in order that they might be got together upon the shortest possible notice in case of an emergency arising that would demand action by the military.

Several clashes between whites and blacks of a minor nature occurred during the day, all traceable to the feeling engendered by the Atlanta rioting.

One negro was terribly beaten on West Broad street by white men, after he had struck a little white boy.

Tonight a large rally of negroes was held in one of the negro churches. This was for the discussion of the negroes' byocott of the street railroad company, which has been practically complete since the enforcement of the ordinance prohibiting negroes from riding on the cars save in certain seats.

A large detachment of police attended the meeting, prepared to break it up should it become incendiary. Police rode on the cars between Savannah and Thunderbolt tonight, "The Clansman" being shown at the Casino at that place.

It was feared that shots might be fired into the cars from ambush along the route.

THAW'S APPEAL CONSIDERED.

Asks Court to Transfer His Case to Supreme Court.

New York, September 24.—The application of Clifford W. Hartridge, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, under indictment for the murder of Stanford White, for the removal of the trial of Thaw from the court of general sessions to the criminal branch of the supreme court, was argued before Justice Bischoff today. At the conclusion of the hearing Justice Bischoff reserved his decision.

What we know you would always say "Schlitz beer" when you order. If you could visit our brewery—as thousands have done—you would insist on the beer that is brewed here.

SAYS OFFICERS NEGLECT DUTY

Chief Jennings Orders Captains to Keep on Watchout.

After looking over the situation in the city yesterday afternoon, Chief Jennings noticed that some of the officers were clearly neglecting their duty, and immediately came to headquarters and reported the matter to Captains Mayo and Joiner, telling them to keep watch, and that officers neglecting their duty will be put off the force at once.

Said Chief Jennings: "I have observed several policemen plainly violating the rules on the streets this afternoon, appearing to side with one faction and another and talking to citizens, and I will not put up with this for a minute. If I find any men in the act of neglect, and can prove it, they will leave the force at once." This to Captains Mayo and Joiner, and the chief advised them to watch the men closely.

FINED FOR GUN-CARRYING.

Police Are Making a Crusade on the Suspicious Looking Negroes.

A good many negroes were arrested on Saturday and Sunday for carrying concealed weapons. Both the police and militia are making a crusade on negroes who are suspicious, and have them taken to the police station. Besides this citizens in the different parts of the city are forming into small patrols, and scouring their immediate neighborhoods for such characters.

The following is a list of the men who were fined by Judge Broyles yesterday: Andrew Williams, John DeFoe, Will Jimpson, Tom Smith, Henry Thomas, Wiley Ferrell, and Oliver Daniel.

BOYS ORDERED OFF STREETS

After Five O'Clock Minors Had to Go to Their Homes.

Chief Jennings yesterday afternoon issued an order that no boys under 21 years of age should be allowed on the streets after 5 o'clock and had all officers on the beats notified. The chief also ordered that all boys under the age limit, violating the order should be arrested and brought to the station. It is not know just how long this will be in effect, but it is believed it will stand until the mob excitement has subsided.

All the policemen on duty were given instructions in the matter and the youngsters were made to remain at their homes last night.

HEROIC GIRLS AID INJURED

Keep Cool When Four Are Killed and Fifteen Hurt.

Minneapolis, September 24.—Four are dead and fifteen are injured as the result of a rear end collision of a passenger train and a switch engine in the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad yards at New Prague, Minn., 40 miles south of Minneapolis, today.

The dead:

D. D. Demarais, Minneapolis, traveling salesman.

F. E. Brom, St. Paul, salesman.

George E. Klinkerfuss, St. Paul, salesman.

Frank Wrabeck, New Prague.

The most seriously hurt are:

David Green, residence unknown, reported dying.

A. E. Kilroy, Albert Lea, injured internally.

Thomas McDonald, Minneapolis, engineer on switch engine.

C. L. Kline, Minneapolis, lineman, badly hurt internally.

Miss Myrtle Vinton, of Minneapolis, and Miss Goldie Gorrell, of Marshalltown, Iowa, did heroic work in caring for the injured. They were passengers on the train, but did not lose their nerve when the crash came. Almost at once they began their relief work. They tore skirts into strips for bandages and seemed to be everywhere that aid was needed. Their efforts met with the highest praise on the part of others in the rescue work.

An Old-Time Remedy.

When the world seems full of trouble,
And you feel you'd like to swear;
When you see no silver lining
To your black cloud of despair;
When you look and feel disheartened,
When you're full of bluest blues,
Beat it home and hunt the feathers—
Take a

snooze.

When you feel that you've been handed
A big lemon all around;
When your throat gives forth a grumble
Ev'ry time it makes a sound;
When with discontent you're teeming
From your hat down to your shoes,
Beat it home and hunt the feathers—
Take a

GLASS TO LIPS HE FELL DEAD

Sol Barrett Dies From Appoplетic Stroke at Milledgeville.

Milledgeville, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—This community was greatly shocked this morning by the sudden death of Sol Barrett, one of our best known and highly esteemed citizens.

Mr. Barrett was apparently in his usual health and spirits this morning, pleasantly greeting his friends. About 11:30 he entered Dr. George D. Case's drug store, asking for coca-cola, saying he had a headache. As he was in the act of raising the glass to his lips he fell over, dying in a few moments from a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Barrett was a native of Charleston, Ohio, but for over thirty years has been a resident of this section and city. He was loved and respected by all classes and was closely identified with many movements and enterprises that resulted in the material, moral and religious upbuilding of this community. He could be found on the right side of every issue.

Mr. Barrett was in his fifty-fourth year, leaving a wife and seven children—Mrs. H. W. Compton, of Atlanta; C. F. Barrett, of this city; John J. Barrett, of Madison, and Misses Mary, Laura, Bunavista and Master Sol Barrett, Jr., of this city. The funeral will take place from the Baptist church at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Now the Rainbow Women.

(From The London Express.)

"Coloritis" has attacked the women of today, and the glamor of the rainbow has fallen on them.

"Violent blues, crude purples and brilliant oranges will be worn now," said a West End dressmaker to an Express representative.

"The devotees to fashion have gone mad over the colors of the rainbow, and they demand the most brilliant contrasts.

"Rainbow scarfs dazzle the feminine eye. Shaded silks and crepes, which last winter imitated the delicate coloring of the sunset, are now labeled 'storm effects,' and blend from flaming orange to fiery red.

"The pale diaphanous ball robe is quite out of date. The debutante may appear in a white chiffon dress for her first ball, but she quickly discards it for one of vermilion of tulle or emerald green crepe de chine.

"A winter bride, one of our customers, is to wear the conventional snowy gown, but in the place of orange blossoms a coronet of scarlet berries will crown her hair.

"The fact is that women are color mad at present, and no shade can be too startling."

A well known glover has the same tale to tell.

"Last season," he said, "we could count on one hand our customers who demanded colored gloves, but this winter the pale grays and fawns are considered insignificant. Already we have been asked for claret, grass green, royal purple and electric blue gloves.

"The smart woman's glove bill will increase enormously, as these bright shades are very expensive."

"There is a tendency to have boots and shoes to match the various gowns," a West End bootmaker said. "Grass green stockings and court shoes tied with a bow of green satin ribbon are considered smart.

"Some of our customers who still wear subdued colored gowns introduce the flaming hues in their footgear. A black gown worn with scarlet hose and shoes, or a pale blue ball dress worn with brilliant purple stockings and satin slippers, purple gloves and a wreath of violets in the hair is distinctly fashionable."

The "Shopper's Face."

(From The London Penny Magazine.)

The "shopper's face" is one of the ills that the strenuous life has brought about upon the long suffering modern woman. It is described as "a fixed, tense, anxious, puzzled look, that brings wrinkles before their time."

PALMA HAS YIELDED, SAYS HAVANA REPORT

Government and Moderates Said to Have Conceded Practically Everything.

REBEL CHIEF, GARCIA, TOO SICK TO SEE TAFT

United States Secretary of War Has Both Sides to Formally Agree to Armistice, Which Has Been in Operation for Several Days.

Havana, September 24.—It was rumored late this afternoon that the government and the moderates had tacitly decided to concede practically everything to the liberals and rebels.

Havana, September 24.—Victory for the liberals or revolutionary party seems certain tonight at the conclusion of a long conference between a committee of the insurgents, of eight members, and the American peace commissioners. The insurgent committee announced there was practically no differences remaining between them and Secretaries Taft and Bacon, and that they would receive a draft of the peace plans tomorrow. These probably would be agreed to at a meeting to be held in the presidio, where the prisoner members of the committee are confined.

Secretary Taft said he could give no details of what transpired at the conference for the reason that it was now necessary to treat with the government leaders, and that the publication of the peace proposals might interfere with their prompt acceptance.

Messrs. Taft and Bacon went to the palace tonight and informed President Palma of the outcome of the negotiations with the liberals.

The absence of a definite statement from the commissioners makes it impossible to say whether the plans carry the resignations of the present administration and the congressmen elected last year or not. There is a strong impression that President Palma will remain and reorganize the cabinet, but that new elections will be held for the senators and representatives who were elected last year, and possibly also for provincial officers.

In discussing the situation Secretary Taft said that tomorrow he would go over with Alfredo Zayas, the leader of the liberals, the variations that the liberal leaders desire in the memorandum of the peace programme. "If we reach a conclusion," the secretary said, "we hope to announce it tomorrow night."

Mr. Taft evinced a great pleasure at the progress made thus far, and it is evident that he regards the remainder of the negotiations as a matter of working out the details of the peace agreement. This bear out the insistent rumor in circulation here today that the government abandoned much of its opposition to receiving the liberal leaders, and it was apparent that the peace commissioners felt that while there was no reason for rebellion in Cuba, there was real foundation for liberal complaint against the election methods of the administration party.

The conference began at half past 5, and continued until 8 o'clock this evening. Practically all this time was occupied by Secretary Taft's review of the situation. It was evident that the realized from the outset that peace could be established by recognizing in the main the contentions of the liberals.

REBELS HAD PLANNED TO CAPTURE HAVANA

New York, September 24.—The Cuban revolutionary junta received a letter today directly from General Orestes Ferrara, in which the general says that he expected to unite with the forces of General Pino Guerra and get Del Castillo and take the city of Havana. He was halted outside of the city of Santa Clara by information that the United States government had appointed commissioners to settle the difficulty. He refers to this in his letter as "the amiable intervention of President Roosevelt." The letter concludes as follows:

"We, as well as our opponents, want peace, but it must be based on justice. We will not tolerate a mere commercial transaction by which only a minority of the people would be benefited. We want the benefit to be general. If the peace commissioners should impose upon us a solution of the contest that would not the the general benefit it would temporarily stop the revolution, but the germs would remain to fructify at a period in the near future. If Americans want to force Palma into an honest solution of the trouble I think the commission ought to give us the right to sustain our contentions. If we cannot prove our charges we are ready to give up the struggle and submit ourselves to the present government, which is to us as odious as that of Spain."

TWO KILLED BY FAST TRAIN

Four Men Struck by Southern Train--Two of Them Killed.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 24.—William H. Haynes, aged 40, and Dewey Haynes, aged 17, were instantly killed this afternoon; and George W. Cox fatally injured, when a party of four men were struck by a fast Southern passenger train at New Line, a small station near Morristown. The men were en route from Mansfield to New Line, where they intended to start a sawmill. The fourth man of the party, Jesse Chesterfield, escaped without injury. They had awaited the passage of a freight train and stepped directly in front of the passenger train.

DISPENSARY TO RUN GAUNTLET

Popular Election to Determine Raleigh Dispensary's Fate.

Raleigh, N. C., September 24.—The Raleigh dispensary, which produces an annual net profit of $60,000, is to run the gauntlet of a popular election. In a decision today in the superior court, Judge Webb granted a petition for mandamus to order an election. The decision is important, construing the Watts and Ward acts, under which North Carolina rural districts are under prohibition, and a number of the cities have dispensaries.

Last spring a petition to order an election on prohibition was presented to the Raleigh board of aldermen, but was refused upon the ground that there was no provision in the law for submitting the question of prohibition whereby a previous vote the dispensary has been established.

The city attorney gave notice of appeal from Judge Webb's decision.

REPUBLICAN CLUB WELCOMED BRYAN

Whole of New Orleans Assisted in Entertainment.

Commoner Rehearses Solution of Railroad Ownership Problem, and Expressed Himself as Confident Cubans Can Govern Themselves.

New Orleans, September 24.—William J. Bryan, speaking here today, defended his right to express what opinion his conscience dictated upon the government ownership of railroads. He touched upon the Cuban situation and gave arguments used throughout his southern trip to show that the republican party has adopted democratic principles.

A feature of Mr. Bryan's reception was a banquet in his honor, where party lines were thrown aside, and he was introduced by a leading member of the Louisiana republican club.

Before an audience of about 7,000 people on the polo field at City park Mr. Bryan said: "I am afraid I got myself into trouble when I intimated that we would have to go further than the regulation of railroads, and that the government might have to own them. While abroad I found the trend of opposition toward governmentship, and I saw what I believed to be a better solution than centralized ownership, namely state ownership, where possible, combined with government ownership of trunk lines. When I returned to New York I had to say something on this subject, and I had no time to call a mass meeting to have pointed out to me what I ought to think.

"I have seen railroad influence pack conventions I have seen it corrupt legislative bodies and courts, and I for one will not willingly see the railroads rob the people of one million dollars or more a year, and not say what I think about it. I want to warn you to think about government ownership of railroads now. If regulation proves effective I do not believe the people will want government ownership, but I warn you that it will come if regulation fails, and that if it does come you may have to try the experiment, unless you consider now a duel political of federal ownership of all railroads. I want you to consider combined state and federal ownership in order to avoid centralizing power by dividing it among the states. If it is a sacrifice of my own prospects to advocate what I consider the democratic plan of government ownership, then no man ever walked to sacrifice more willingly than I." On the Cuban situation he said: "Because there is an insurrection in Cuba I have heard some people deny that Cubans can govern themselves. I might say the same thing myself if my memory did not run back for far that I remember the time when that there was civil war in this country. I never heard any one say that because of this war the United States could not govern itself."

Mr. Bryan had a little difficulty in getting away from the park after his speech, on account of the crowds which wished to shake hands. Preceding this speech, Mr. Bryan had been the guest at a non-partisan banquet and welcome given by the New Orleans Progressive Union, whose guest he was. Here he was introduced first by Albert Godchaux, president of the union and a republican, and afterward by Governor N. C. Blanchard. The Louisiana Republican Club participated in this welcome. Mr. Bryan, speaking at the banquet, divided the political worl dinto two parties, which he called the progressives and the conservatives, and said he did not believe the world would grow better except by the presence of both these parties.

He remarked that in this trip around the world he noted that the sun never set on American philanthropy.

Mr. Bryan's stay in New Orleans was brief, as he arrived shortly before noon, and left early this afternoon for Memphis. While the train which brought him here was passing through small Louisiana towns this morning, making frequent stops, Mr. Bryan made brief remarks at some places, and held hand shaking reception through his car window at others. Mrs. Bryan, who accompanied him, was entertained by a committee of New Orleans women.

N. Y. DEMOCRATS STILL UNDECIDED

Tammany to Support Up-State Choice.

Hearst, Adam and Nix Are Mentioned for the Gubernatorial Nomination, but No One Stands Out Stronger Than Others.

Buffalo, N. Y., September 24.—On the eve of the democratic state convention the various candidates who are on the scene and the representatives of those absent, marshaled their forces and prepared for what is expected to be the liveliest and most interesting convention the democratic party has ever held in this state. The convention will meet tomorrow noon. The party leaders are still trying to fathom the strength of William R. Hearst in whose behalf a strong campaign organization is working. They are also endeavoring to secure a declaration from Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany.

Mr. Murphy was called upon at his headquarters tonight by a party of seven delegates from as many counties in the state who were headed by John A. Dix, of Washington county, and who spoke in behalf of Mr. Dix as their choice for governor.

To these Mr. Murphy made the most positive statement of his position and that of Tammany Hall, that he has uttered in public since his arrival here.

"Tammany is not pledged to any candidate whatsoever," said he, "and I want it understood we are here to find out who the up-state people want and whoever they decide upon is good enough for us, no matter whether it is Mr. Adam, Mr. Dix or anybody else. Tammany will follow, not lead."

Added significance was attached to this remark by the fact that it was uttered after Mr. Murphy had been in an all afternoon conference with a number of prominent men representing the various factions of the party.

Former Mayor Osborne stated tonight that the Albany conference proposes to send a committee to the convention bearing the resolutions adopted at the recent conference as well as the address issued to the public by the executive committee several days ago, calling upon the delegates to the Buffalo convention to "stand for democratic principles and democratic candidates."

District Attorney Jerome was closeted in his apartments nearly all day and Mayor McClellan, who is active in advocating the district attorney for the gubernatorial nomination, conferred busily with the delegates.

It was announced tonight that Senator Grady will offer in the committee on resolutions a resolution indorsing William J. Bryan as the presidential nominee of the democratic party in 1908.

Lewis S. Nixon, of New York city, a former leader of Tammany hall, was tonight chosen as temporary chairman of the democratic state convention, the first session of which will be called to order here at noon tomorrow. Mr. Nixon is a delegate to the convention from the district of Charles F. Murphy, the present leader of the Tammany organization.

The former Tammany leader is claimed by the advocates of William R. Hearst to be friendly to their candidate for the governorship. The temporary chairman has, however, made no public declarations of his position.

FOUR ARE LYING AT DEATH'S DOOR

White Boy and Negroes Engage in Fierce Fight in Virginia.

Danville, Va., September 24.—As the result of a fight last night on a bridge near the city between C. L. Perrow, son of a prominent farmer and four negroes, young Perrow lies at the point of death, and Ed Graves, one of the negroes, was perhaps fatally stabbed by the white man. Perrow and the negroes had been drinking together, and he became involved in a difficulty with Graves, stabbing him several times with a knife. This act enraged the blacks, who were armed with pistols, and fired at him seventeen times. George Roberts, one of the negroes in the party when arrested had on his person two pistols, the chambers of which were all empty. Three bullets took effect in the body of Perrow, who is only 18 years of age.

BIG PIERS FOR EXPOSITION.

The Structures Will Be Features at Jamestown Next Year.

Washington, September 24.—Plans were approved today by General MacKenzie, chief of engineers, and the secretary of war for a great double pier, which is to be constructed at the Jamestown exposition. The pier, or rather piers, for there are really two to be built in connection with each other—will extend from the exposition grounds into the waters of Hampton Roads. One of the piers will be known as Godspeed pier, and the other as Susan Constant pier. The plans were drawn by Captain Crosby, of the engineer corps of the army. The contract for the construction of the pier will be let at the earliest possible date, as the work must be completed not later than May 1, next. Considerable dredging will have to be done in the water in front of the exposition grounds, as it is too shallow now to permit of the landing of vessels of even medium draft. The pier complete will cost about $400,000. It will bear towers equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus, and the entire pier will be brilliantly lighted by electricity.

Explosion of Gas Causes Fire.

Topeka, Kan., September 24.—Fire, starting from a natural gas explosion in the basement of the Crawford opera house today, caused the destruction of the stock of the Moffat furniture store, the Union Tea Company, the theater and scenery, and the household goods of several families. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

MAYOR WOODWARD "HURRIED" BY FAITHFUL YOUNG SENTRY

THE soldiers did good work in trying to keep the people on the move last night. The order was not to allo wany person to stop or loiter on any street corner on in any store.

This rule was applied to even the mayor of the city, who was one of the chief exponents of "go home" if you have "no business down town."

Last night Mayor Woodward stepped into the drug store of Elkin & Watson, at the corner of Marietta and ePachtree streets, and called for a soft drink. After taking the drink he loitered about the store to talk with newspaper men.

A young soldier stepped quickly to the side of the mayor, not knowing who he was, and said:

"If you have your drink you had better get out."

The mayor smiled and replied:

"You are right, young man, I will move along."

Mayor Woodward said afterward as he walked from the drug store:

"I was willing to go alright. The order was a good one, and I was as willing as any one to move along. I think the congregating of people who stop to talk about the riot is apt to cause trouble. Of course, as mayor of town I had a right to stop and talk a little, but the soldier showed he was trying to do his duty, and I moved as he told me to."

PAINT STORE EXPLOSION PAINTS A PASSING CAR

CHICAGO, September 24.—A series of explosions in the paint store of Emile Faure, 5046 Wentworth avenue, last night blew out the front of the building and hurled cans of paint into the street, injuring a man and a woman who were passing, and throwing the passengers of a street car into a panic. The car was painted with a coat of red, yellow, green and brown and the clothing almost torn off several of the passengers.

Three children of John Mortenson, living next door, disappeared shortly after the fire broke out, and although the police and neighbors searched for them no trace of them was found. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is $20,000.

BOSTON, MASS., September 24.—With simple ceremonies the United States battle ship Georgia was commissioned today at the Charlestown navy yard. Captain Richard D. Davenport took command of the ship, which, it is expected, will sail in a few days. It is believed the Georgia will be sent to Cuban waters.

INCREASE SHOWN IN TAX RETURNS

Montgomery, Ala., September 24.—(Special.)—With returns in from half the counties it is shown that the tax values of the year will exceed those of last year by perhaps $30,000,000. The thirty-nine counties heard from show that the increases have been over $22,000,000, though there is some confusion about some of the counties. However, it is established that with the counties heard from there is a net increase in valuations of $20,000,000. This will throw the whole amount beyond $30,000,000 if the ratio is preserved.

The state is shown to be very prosperous in every line of the state departments. The convict board will turn in net for the year at least $325,000, of which a neat sum will be net earnings of the cotton mills. For eighteen months the cotton mills have earned net $50,000. The insurance department will net over $100,000, and the other revenue departments will come along the same way.

Incidents to betterments it is noted with interest that the work on the new capitol annex is going along rapidly, and very likely the state officers will be in by the first of the year. The marble tile is being rushed.

Columbus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Columbus is to make an effort to secure the agricultural school to be located at some point in the fourth congressional district, but nothing will be done until the trustees of the schools have been appointed by the governor.

AN APPEAL TO CONSERVATIVE ATLANTA!

The Methodist ministers of Atlanta are, first of all, SOUTHERN men. Their knowledge of the eternal southern problem is vivid and personal. No man can question the direction of their deep and abiding sympathies.

But they are also citizens; they are patriots; they are men of God. At a meeting yesterday they adopted resolutions touching the Saturday night saturnalia of blood. The first resolution, as shown elsewhere, denounces the attacks upon white women in uncompromising and ringing language. Then follows the following resolution—we call the earnest attention of EVERY SINGLE CITIZEN of Atlanta to its candid, courageous wording:

"WE CONDEMN THE SPIRIT OF LAWLESSNESS THAT WOULD NOT ONLY VISIT VENGEANCE TO THE GUILTY, BUT WRATH UPON THE INNOCENT, AND CALL UPON ALL RIGHT THINKING PEOPLE BY SENTIMENT AND ACTION TO SECURE RESPECT FOR LAW AND REGARD FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIVINE JUSTICE."

The Constitution believes it is simply according sheer justice to the conservative element of Atlanta—an overwhelming majority of the city's population—when it represents them as in full sympathy with the spirit of this utterance.

Let us be frank with each other, and look an abhorrent, an extraordinary situation full in the face:

Primarily—there is the provocation. It stands out in revolting, maddening relief. With the Anglo-Saxon all things begin—all things end—with the chastity, the inviolability of the women of the race. No man worthy the love of his mother, no man boasting the traditions of his father, but would eagerly claim the privilege of resigning life in the defense of that chastity; equally, in meting out punishment for an invasion of that inviolability.

Conceded, then, that all of us—to the LAST MAN—will go almost any conceivable length in the duty manhood lays upon us. Conceded that the men of this community have, for months, been haunted by a hidden menace likely without warning to lay their homes in ruins. Conceded that the agony of apprehension had reached a crisis Saturday evening; that the bonds of human endurance, of finite restraint had reached the snapping point.

Now, let us ask ourselves, frankly:

Do ANY of these considerations justify the slaughter and the maiming of absolutely innocent persons? Are we working for the protection of the womanhood of our race when immature boys—many of them in knee-trousers, many of them led by indiscreet and unthinking leaders; many of them viewing the thing simply as a picnic—drag innocent, pleading human beings from street cars, from alleys where they had taken refuge, from the sides of their employers, and hack and stab and shoot and stamp them?

Does blood-lust—purely for the SAKE of blood-lust—revenge crime? Does the doing to death of the blameless—and in few of the cases of Saturday was resistance or provocation shown—right even the terrible wrongs pressed upon the white people of this community? Is such letting loose of savage, insane atrocity likely to prevent a repetition of these crimes?

Punishment—swift, sure, absolute—for the assailant, or the would-be assailant! Punishment that will deter! Punishment that will awe into silence. Punishment that will inspire fear and respect for the law of the ruling race. No southern white man will take issue with these positive principles. Not one but will enforce them at the expense of his own life—if that sacrifice be the only sufficient remedy.

BUT——

Not "punishment" that will crucify the innocent and react on the race that inflicts it. Not "punishment" that makes a holiday out of a man-hunt. Not "punishment" that pillories us in our own self-respect—in the regard of the south—in the exaggerated horror of the nation. Not "punishment" that jeopardizes the peace; the honor, the prosperity, the future of the community. For, after the tempestuous scenes of Saturday evening, it is only the watchful care of Providence, the vigilance of the authorities, that has saved Atlanta, TODAY, from a reign of anarchy and death the contemplation of which makes the very breath catch in the throat.

For the reckless mob-spirit—tiger-like—having once tasted blood, was, at one time, BECOMING CARELESS OF RACE AND COLOR in its hunger for further horrible nourishment. This was shown in the act of a white mob in FIRING INTO A GROUP OF WHITE MILITIAMEN AND WHITE CITIZENS. It was shown in the frenzied blows dealt whites who, inadvertently, stood in the way of members of the mob. It was shown in the rough handling of street car conductors and motormen who attempted to rush their cars out of the danger zone. Such indications cannot but strike apprehension into the mind of the conservative thinker; they cannot but indicate, all too eloquently, the length to which such things may go.

Another resolution of the Methodist ministers is equally significant. It is as follows:

"THAT WE DEPRECATE ALL SENSATIONAL PRESENTATIONS OF INSTANCES OF ASSAULT, THEREBY INFLAMING PASSION AND INCITING TO VIOLENCE."

Giving emphasis to this resolution of the Methodist ministers is one passed by the grand jury of Fulton county yesterday. It enters into even fuller detail:

"Resolved, by the grand jury of Fulton county, That the press of the city be urged to abstain from the publication of all sensational and inflammatory news matter; to discontinue the publication of 'extras' in reference to prevailing local conditions; to publish no rumors until such rumors are first investigated and found to be true; in short, to use conservatism and discretion in the treatment of all facts relating to the conditions now confronting us."

The tragic climax of Saturday night was conclusive evidence of the power of the press over public sentiment. Its handiwork—of course, not intentional—could be seen by a man with half an eye. Such vast, such terrible power should breed, it MUST breed, a sense of restraint. The newspapers are under bond to the community. Sensationalism has already worked too much mischief. Let it now give place to conservatism, to an appeal for quietness, for normal conditions, for a restoration of peace and confidence.

Our women must and will be protected, but their surest and best protection, as well as that of the whole community, is the supreme reign of the law, and the guarantee that order and not chaos shall control.

In this direction is to be found the salvation of the situation, and to this end conservative Atlanta appeals to its full citizenship!

As we go to press, news is received of the murder of one brave county policeman and the wounding of others by negroes in the outskirts of the city. Every guilty party should be apprehended and no effort should be spared to run down the murderers. The policemen were acting in the discharge of their duty in the effort to restore peace and protect the community. The cowardly negroes responsible for this attack have done the very worst thing that could have been done at this juncture. They should have known that the men who were so ruthlessly assaulted while in the discharge of their duty were there as guardians of the peace—which means much more to the blacks than to the whites at this time.

It is gratifying to know that the spirit which prompted these midnight assassins in their murderous assault upon innocent men is no more approved by the better element of the negroes than was the killing of innocent men by the mob on Saturday approved by the better element of the whites.

This last incident serves to show the importance, more than ever, of the law asserting itself, and the good people of Atlanta must be depended upon more than ever to save the city and protect its good name.

It is time for chaos to end and for law and order to reign!

Mr. Patterson Grieves.

Joseph Medill Patterson, the young Chicago millionaire-socialist, contributes an excellently written article to a current magazine in which he deplores his own uselessness. With a rare modesty, he denounces his services to humanity as nothing greater that a "bit of lip service" and, with considerable enthusiasm, places upon himself the brand of the "drone."

Some months ago Mr. Patterson, who was commissioner of public works in Chicago under a reputed reform administration, incontinently abandoned his post because he believed graft and other malodorous performances to be rampant throughout the city hall administration. During his brief tenure of office he made an excellent city official—efficient, absolutely incorruptible, energetic, possessed of a mind brimful of the healthy ideas every big city needs in its progress and management. He should have cleaved manfully to his post; the more manfully when he had his eyes opened to the fact that municipal politics did not exale the perfume of wild violets. He was a portion of the wholesome yeast which could, in time, have leavened the lump of iniquity. The people of Chicago needed him more urgently than all his socialist friends out in the world did. His desertion of the Dunne administration certainly smacked of that disposition which falls back at the first volley. If he is a "drone" it is not for lack of opportunity to do real work.

Has it never occurred to Mr. Patterson that manual labor, while entitled to a conspicuous and indispensable place in the work of society, is not the last word with regard to the individual obligation to humanity at large? Is the kind of service he could have rendered in inaugurating a thorough cleansing process in Chicago politics less important than work he can perform with his hands? Were his reportorial work, his editorial propaganda, the speeches he delivered to the residents of the big city by the lake not just as vital a portion of the march of human progress and not just as great and honorable a mission as the purely physical exertion for which he seems to pine?

Mr. Patterson was very far from being a "drone" in the campaign which resulted in Mayor Dunne's election. He at least demonstrated his capacity for work. What he chiefly needs at this time is to acquire a new and more liberal conception of "work," and to get from under the influence of the more extreme dreamers with whom he seems to have been allied.

Baltimore's Fire Memorial.

The city of Baltimore is preparing to erect a substantial memorial which shall commemorate its partial destruction by fire, and stand as a lasting reminder of the marvelous manner in which the city recovered from the staggering disaster.

Charles H. Grasty, editor of The Baltimore News, took the initiative in the movement, and he has been named by the mayor as the head of the committee to crystallize plans. The selection of Mr. Grasty is eminently appropriate, not only because of this suggestion of the idea, but for the reason that his paper, The Baltimore News, was the first to resume publication in the stricken city. The example that Mr. Grasty and his courageous and energetic staff set was a material factor in reviving the pluck and determination of the people at their darkest hour—a fact that is appreciated by all Baltimoreans familiar with the chaotic conditions directly following the big conflagration.

On its intrinsic merits, Mr. Grasty's suggestion is an excellent one. The recuperation of Baltimore, measured by its rapidity and thoroughness, is a matter of national no less than local and state pride. It should, by all means, be commemorated in enduring style, and no more fitting head for the movement than Mr. Grasty could have been chosen.

Cuba's Tobacco Revolution.

A Havana correspondent who is recognized as exceptionally well informed on Cuban affairs, says the present revolution in that island is largely due to the failure of the tobacco crop. Because of the almost total failure of the leaf last season it is said that genuine Havana tobacco promises to be as scarce as it was during the Spanish-American war.

According to this correspondent, last season was the most unfavorable ever known in the Vuelto Abajo district, where the choicest tobacco leaf grows. The crop was drowned out time and time again, the tenant farmers being left without subsistence. The people of the province were starving. They appealed to the government for assistance, but help was not forthcoming from Havana and the people were thus ripe for rebellion.

It is also stated that the growers should now be busy for the next year's crop, but with civil war ravaging the fields, planting is impossible and the farmers face another season of poverty.

It will be, therefore, seen that in its economic causes the Cuban revolution is a tobacco revolution.

Silver's Rehabilitation.

Ranging between 67 and 68 cents an ounce, the highest it has reached in more than ten years, silver is sharing in the general prosperity of the period. A New York financial journal observes that as the production of silver is increasing, the present condition of the market demonstrates a notably stronger silver demand.

This, in the opinion of this authority, is partly monetary and partly industrial.

The fact that our government is again taking a hundred thousand ounces a month for its subsidiary coinage, after being long out of the market, while working up the silver bullion accumulated prior to 1903, is undoubtedly a factor in the advancing price. Then, too, the east is increasing its demands, taking more than 76,000,000 ounces the first half of the year, with every indication of larger rather than smaller demands for the second half year. The French government is also in the market for silver supplies.

To what extent these increasing demands for the white metal will affect silver mining stocks is problematical, but, of course, they will all be noticeably strengthened. But silver must needs go considerably higher than 68 before the purely silver mining camps in the west which have been closed since 1894 will be warranted in reopening.

MAN'S THIGH IS FOUND.

Murdered New Yorker's Body Being Found in Bits.

New York, September 24.—Another part of the dismembered body, the torso of which was found in a pit at Eleventh avenue and Thirty-sixth street, was discovered by the police today. One of the thighs which was missing was found two blocks away. The police are engaged in searching for the head of the missing man and until that is found there is little hope of identifying the body. The police were busy today in trying to trace five men who were seen Saturday night beating a man in West Thirty-sixth street not far from the spot where the torso was afterwards found.

TO OPERATE ON A BAD BOY.

Effort Is Made by Surgeons to Remove Criminal Tendencies.

New York, September 24.—Carl Fredericks, a 9-year-old boy, of Hoboken, N. J., is to be operated upon in the hope of reforming him. The lad is now at the reformatory, under constant surveillance by scientists. The doctors declare the size of the brain must be reduced.

Tests made showed that the boy has no sense of right or wrong and by the operation, which will probably take place within a week, it is hoped to overcome the criminal tendencies which have so defied the corrective attempts of his parents.

The boy's head is abnormal in shape, the skull coming almost to a point. The ears are small, but protruding; the eyes are as sharp as ferrets.

A strange feature of the boy's behavior is that at times he is good, but never for more than an hour.

MINISTERS DISCUSS LACK OF PREACHERS

By EDWARD YOUNG CLARKE.

THE Methodist ministers at their meeting Monday morning took up and discussed the ministerial famine which is spreading like a pall over the pulpits of Georgia. Dr. Charles O. Jones was the leader of the discussions, and gave a masterful presentation. So great was the interest manifested, and so eager are the ministers to discover the reasons for the 200 vacant pulpits in Georgia, that they have carried the discussion over, and will continue it at next Monday's meeting. The trend of sentiment at the meeting was to the effect that lack of piety in the home and commercialism were largely responsible.

Rev. J. H. Eakes set the meeting on fire when he cried:

"I believe that the biggest reason and the most potent factor in the lack of ministerial candidates is the decadence of piety in the homes of the Christian people of the country. How well I can remember when at every family altar there was offered up a petition to God that if He saw fit He was to take some member of the family and call him to the work of the ministry. Home piety is no longer now what it used to be, and for this reason there are fewer young men receiving the call of God to enter the ministry.

"I may be considered an old fogy, and I know it is said by some that only the negroes now believe in a divine call to the ministry; but I believe that God calls men to the ministry. (A perfect storm of "Amens" and "That is the truth, brother," swept through the room at this declaration.)

"I think that there are some in the ministry today who have not been called by God, but that is not the question. How seldom also do our preachers, in this day and time, preach concerning God's call for young men to enter the ministry. We used to hear a great deal from the pulpit about the matter, but hear very little about it now.

"Piety in the home is, however, where the matter can be best reached, and it is where it was formerly reached. Children were made to feel that the ministry was a high and a holy calling, and the prayers of the family often went up to the throne of grace beseeching God to take one of the sons, or all of the sons, and make them ministers."

Dr. Jones opened the subject in his usual forceful manner, and went into the details which are familiar, but which he handled in a splendid way. In part, he said:

"I regretted very much that I was appointed to lead this discussion, because my views in regard to the matter are more pessimistic than I like to admit even to myself.

"I am not prepared to deny, but I do seriously doubt, that there is so much a dearth of pastors as there is a tendency on the part of the church to demand more of the pastor than the present list of ministers can measure up to. I am not prepared to positively affirm it, but I certainly believe that there are enough preachers in Georgia to go round, but the churches want different preachers from the ones that are to be had.

"The churches are demanding of the preacher a man who will kiss the babies, jolly the young people, hobnob with middle-aged and talk sympathetically with the old and the invalid.

"They want a man to be not only a theologian, but a specialist on science, art, machinery, civil engineering, and all the other phases of life's learning and endeavor. (Much laughter.)

"They do not mind a man being weak in doctrine, if he is strong in etiquette. In fact, many congregations would much rather have a preacher wobble a little in doctrine than eat with his knife when invited to supper. (Much laughter.)

"I can not agree with Dr. Lee that the situation is due to the suppression of free thought. In the Congregational church, where the utmost freedom of thought prevails, the ministerial famine is greatest. I think we have too much free thought, and too much free action.

"One of the first causes is the commercial spirit of the age. It is overwhelming. We say our prayers to the Atlanta spirit oftentimes with more vehemence than the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Small salaries is another feature of the subject. The minister is not allowed to enter business of any kind. He is a child of the church, and utterly dependent upon her for support. The average minister of the Methodist church receives much less than the negro stone mason or bricklayer. That's the way the church supports those who are dependent upon her! And the salaries of many of them even though small are not paid in time, and very often not paid in full. Then, too, the age of 50 is a dead line in the ministry. In no other calling is this true! At the end of 50 years of age the preacher has staring him in the face hardship, poverty, and often starvation.

"Then, too, a preacher has no continuing residence. Of course, with Methodist preachers it is only a four-years' residence. But no preacher of any denomination has a fixed residence. They are continually moving and changing. Yet a preacher loves home, social ties, and everything that goes with a permanent place of residence as much as any one. But a preacher has no abiding city.

"Cannot Do What I Please."

"I can preache what I please, but I cannot do what I please. Each one of us has got to please our ruling officers. A man of independence does not relish this state of affairs.

"In connection with the lack of freedom allowed preachers is the too great freedom of the members of the church. The church steward does not hesitate to break the Sabbath by starting to New York on Sunday. If I tell my people they are going to hell because of Sabbath desecration or such things, or if you do it to yours, we are given our walking papers.

"Bishops talk a great deal about discipline after they become bishops, but none of them did any more disciplining than you or I when they were in the ranks of the preachers.

"Another thing is the decadence of the original idea of sin. Today sin is only half sin. It is no longer an enormity and deserving of hell. Therefore, there is no need for hell. You all know that these things are in the air.

"Growing out of this is the lack of the old time revival. We no longer have the old revival with us. There is a prevailing worldliness. Only a thin shadowy line separates between the world and the church. It is so thin we can hardly see it. The situation is enough to make us cry. (Loud 'Amens' followed this declaration.)

"These are sad things. The remedy is in trying to bring the church back to God, and living ourselves perfectly exemplary lives."

GOMPERS PLANS CAMPAIGN.

Will Fight Congressmen Who Oppose Organized Labor.

New York, September 24.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, paid a flying visit to New York from Washington and returned yesterday after conferring with the leaders of the independent labor party. His object in coming here was to map out a plan of campaign against certain congressmen who are said to have gone on record as being opposed to organized labor.

Before he went away, Gompers expressed himself as satisfied with the progress made by the independent labor party. According to Mr. Gompers, labor will play an important part in the elections all over the country this year.

BUILDING MANY CHURCHES.

The New York Presbyterians Spend $2,500,000 in One Year.

New York, September 24.—With the finishing of three churches, which are to be dedicated within two or three weeks, Presbyterians of New York will have spent in one year $2,500,000 on new church buildings, which is a record which is said has never been surpassed. Sites have been bought and buildings put up for seven congregations.

Contributing most to the cost is the Madison Square, or Dr. aPrkhurst's church. It is said the site cost $750,000 and the church and its furnishings $500,000 more.

HAWKINS BROUGHT HERE.

He Was Convicted at Gainesville for Assassination of Cagle.

Gainesville, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Sheriff W. A. Crow left on the Air-Line Belle train at 7:12 this morning for Atlanta with Fred Hawkins, who was last Thursday convicted in Hall superior court of the assassination of Henry E. Cagle and sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary. Hawkins was removed to the Fulton county jail for safe keeping on the order of Judge J. J. Kimsey, before whom Hawkins was tried. It is not known what actuated the presiding judge in having Hawkins carried to Atlanta, as there have been no threats of violence, nor has there been any intimation given the public of any intention on the part of Hawkins to try and effect an escape from the Hall county prison. The order came to Sheriff Crow last evening, and he immediately proceeded to put it into effect. Immediately upon the announcement of the verdict of the jury in the court room last Thursday, notice of a motion for a new trial was filed by Hawkins' attorneys, and Judge Kimsey set the hearing on the motion for the 22nd of October, when he will hold a special term of the superior court.

WATER SPOUT STRIKES SHIP.

Steamer City of Sydney Has Miraculous Escape.

San Francisco, September 24.—Almost by a miracle the steamer City of Sydney escaped a wreck in a huge water spout off the Mexican coast near Aculpo last Sunday. As it was, the water spout struck the stern of the ship, wresting away stanchions and awnings and terrorizing the passengers, who were awakened by the noise of the whirling waters. Yesterday the City of Sydney reached port and those on board told of their experience.

It was shortly before 4 o'clock in the morning that the water spout hit the ship. Unnoticed by the lookout because of the darkness, the column of water suddenly loomed up within a few feet of the stern, which it swept with the rapidity of a whirlwind.

QUITS PULPIT TO STUMP.

Herbert S. Bigelow to Campaign for "Initiative and Referendum."

Cincinnati, September 24.—Herbert S. Bigelow, for the past ten years prominently known as pastor of the Vine Street Congregational church, last night made a formal request of his congregation that they relieve him from his pastoral charge and duties in order that he might devote his time to a canvas of the state of Ohio in the interest of the "initiative and referendum."

Mr. Bigelow was a delegate to the recent democratic state convention, where, as a member of the committee on resolutions, he endeavored to secure the indorsement of his views, also addressing the convention in favor of county option, which, he declared, to be a phase of the initiative and referendum.

FLORIDA MAN KILLED.

Thomas Shot Schofield Near Gainesville, Fla., Yesterday.

Gainesville, Fla., September 24.—(Special.)—Information was received here today that William Thomas, a prominent tie contractor, of Bell, killed Maxie Scofield. Both are prominent men, and it is said that the Thomas and Schofield factions have been at outs for some time, owing to the fact that Scofield was instrumental in having Thomas indicted by the grand jury for perjury at the last term of the circuit court.

The tragedy is greatly deplored. Thomas surrendered, and will be arraigned before justice court, at Bell, Tuesday.

BULLARD SLAYS OWN DAUGHTER

Girl Reported to Have Been in Delicate Condition.

John Bullard, a White Farmer of Powder Springs, Charged With Serious Crimes Against His Sixteen-Year-Old Child.

Powder Springs, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—News has just been received here of one of the most revolting crimes that have ever occurred in this section of the state.

A white farmer named John Bullard, living about a mile from Powder Springs, shot and killed his 16-year-old daughter, Ruth, this morning. He fired six shots into her body, three of the bullets entering her head and the other three taking effect in her body.

Bullard immediately after committing the crime went to his brother and informed him of what he had done. There were no eyewitnesses of the shooting. He declares that he will never make known his reason for committing the deed. He drove to town, where he surrendered to the sheriff. His own days are numbered, as he is said to be dying of consumption.

Bullard has been a widower for several years, the family consisting of these two. They formerly lived at Austell, Ga., from which place they went to Mississippi, and from there to this section. It appears that while residents of Austell, Bullard was arrested and placed in jail in Marietta upon the suspicion that his relations with his daughter were not proper. He was acquitted of this charge and left the state.

It develops that the daughter was in a delicate condition when she was killed. She was not married, and had, so far as was publicly known, lived a perfectly respectable life.

This community has been greatly stirred by the crime and many at first refused to believe the report. The body of the girl was found on the floor in the house in a pool of blood. The father had emptied his revolver into the daughter's form.

Although not considered a very bright man, Bullard's sanity has never been questioned, and it is thought that he must have been terribly excited to have committed this crime.

Later reports are to the effect that he has stated that the shooting was the result of an accident.

Bullard lived alone with his daughter, and refused to give any cause for the shooting until interviewed by a Constitution representative in his cell in the county jail.

He told a long story of a misspent life, culminating in the tragedy enacted this morning, as follows:

"I was married about eighteen years ago, but soon separated from my wife, who died when Ruby was about six years old. I was not with her at the time of her death. I left Ruby with her grandmother about a year, until her grandmother's death, after which Jim Powell, a young man, raised by Mr. Walden, ran off with her. I followed them to Leesburg and by habeas corpus proceedings regained possession of her, and took her to Austell. She was told by Powell and Walden not to cal me papa and not to do anything I said. Finaly I was arrested with her and tried in Cobb county court for having unlawful relations with her, and the authorities took her away from me and told her she could go anywhere she pleased, and I went to Texas. My brother kept Ruby for about a year, then refused to keep her any longer, and sent her to me in Texas. I got sick and we returned to Austell and tried to get along some way, and we started to keep house there.

"About three weeks ago she tried to hurt me and tore my shirt off. Last night she went to a singing. I returned home at my usual hour, and heard her come home and heard her talking to some one in the yard, and heard them strike off several matches. I did not say anything to her until this morning after she had cooked breakfast. We were sitting at the table eating, and I asked her if she couldn' tmake less noise and not disturb me when she came in. She did not say anything, only 'swelled up' and pushed back from the table. I got up and went to my bed and got my pistol to put it away, and walked between a cot and the bed to the trunk. My daughter went into another room and put on her bonnet and returned to the room, and was making toward me with a fork in her hand. I threw up my hands. The pistol was a self-acting one and went off. Ruby threw her hands over her face and reeled. I thought she was dead anyway, and I might as well fire the rest of the loads. I don't know how many shots I fired, but I remember looking into the pistol afterwards and it was empty."

JURY COULD NOT AGREE.

Jim Reed Being Tried at Gainesville for Murder of Hoke Hunt.

Gainesville, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—This term of the court is held primarily for the purpose of trying the case of the State vs. Jim Reed, who is charged with the murder of Hoke Hunt, the 17-year-old son of Dr. A. W. Hunt, of Flowery Branch. Reed was tried at the July term of Hall superior court, but the jury could not agree upon a verdict and a mistrial was ordered. Reed has been very anxious for another trial, and it was for the ppurpose of accommodating him and to rid the dockets of many other cases that Judge Kimsey will hold the term in October.

NEGRO FLOGGED BY ENRAGED MEN

The Black Had Slapped Little White Girl at Toccoa.

Toccoa, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—A half dozen enraged citizens early Sunday morning severely flogged Bill Sadler, a negro, for slapping the little daughter of J. M. Hogan, superintendent of the Capps cotton mills.

For this offense the negro was arrested and lodged in the calaboose for the night, and during the night he was quietly taken out and given a sound thrashing on his bare back with a buggy trace. The lash is said to have been laid on by strong hands and with telling effect.

Sadler is a mulatto of the self-important or "cullud gemmen" type. He had not lived in Toccoa very long having come here from Lavonia a month or so back, and report has it that he stipulated for and in consideration of the discontinuance of the buggy trace performance that his residence in and about Toccoa would cease from that time, or so soon thereafter as he could drag himself away.

PREACHER KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Former Georgian's Act Is Attributed to Insanity.

Selma, Ala., September 24.—Information has reached here from a small settlement just across the line in Perry county to the effect that an illiterate missionary preacher named Christian took a single-barreled shotgun and placing it against his wife's right side discharged it, killing her instantly. He then went into an adjoining room and deliberately reloading the gun, placed the muzzle against his own head and blew out his brains. The act is attributed to insanity. Christian removed from Georgia to Perry county three years ago. He had a large family of children.

WILL NOT CLOSE BUCKET SHOP.

Ware & Leland, at Birmingham, Refuses to Comply With Law.

Birmingham, Ala., September 24.—C. H. Cothran, manager here for Ware & Leland, who conducts a brokerage exchange, today announced that he would fight the enforcement on October 1 of the new city ordinance prohibiting the operation after that date of bucket shops and wire brokerage houses. Practically all the brokerage shops of this character have closed here except that of Ware & Leland. Manager Cothran says he proposes to keep open and if the attempt is made to close him up he will go to the courts and even to the legislature. He claims the new ordinance is unconstitutional. It was passed immediately after the recent disclosures in the $100,000 shortage of A. R. Chisholm, former paying teller of the First National bank, who claimed that bucket shop speculation caused his downfall.

NUT GROWERS TO MEET.

Fifth Annual Convention, October 31, at Scranton, Miss.

Scranton, Miss., September 24.—(Special.)—The fifth annual convention of the National Nut Growers' Association will be held here October 31 to November 2, 1906. Members and all interested in the industry are cordially invited to attend.

The prominent railroads offer a special rate of one and one-third fares for the round trip. Return tickets will be sold at one-third fare to those who hold certificates showing payment of full fare in going to the place of meeting.

Scranton will supplement the programme by entertainments and excursions, which will include trips to nut orchards, boat rides and a clam bake on the gulf coast.

The programme is well arranged, has topics of live interest, with the most able speakers to lead the discussions. Aside from the public addresses and discussions, much time will be given to the consideration of reports of regular and special committees, which are expected to develop various matters on which deliberative action may be taken by the association.

Past conventions have been most valuable, not only to the industry but to the individuals who attended, as well, and this meeting promises to be larger and more important than any previous gathering, as business matters will be given more time and consideration than they received at the other meetings.

UP IN THE AIR IS G. O. P. OF N. Y.

Higgins Refuses to Run and Upsets Plans.

Contest Now Seems to Be Between Bruce and Parsons—It Is Conceded That Odell Still Exerts Great Power on Party.

Saratoga, N. Y., September 24.—"Up in the air" is the answer most frequently given to questions concerning the gubernatorial nomination of the republican state convention. The refusal of Governor Higgins to accept a renomination has unsettled things and now all efforts are being put forth by the leaders to form new lines, to make readjustments and to secure a ticket which can be nominated by acclamation. Harmony is desired and harmony means a slate without a disturbance such as would be created by several ballots for governor.

To make this "slate" an agreement upon a candidate is necessary.

The outlook tonight is that it may be some time before any definite results are accomplished and it is even hinted that an agreement may be delayed until something definite is heard from Buffalo.

Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce is here and an active candidate. His chief competitor is Charles E. Hughes. State Senator Edgar T. Brackett, of Saratoga, has the most pronounced evidence of candidacy in sight. There are quite a number of men in the "mentioned" class, among these being former Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, Elihu Root, secretary of state; former Governor Frank S. Black, Congressman Herbert Parsons and Andrew S. Draper, of Albany, state commissioner of education.

The contest, if there is a contest, is between Bruce and Hughes. Both are from New York county, but the strong support of Bruce comes from up-state leaders, from the men who rallied around Governor Higgins and made possible the defeat of ex-Governor Odell.

Hughes is backed especially by Parsons and it is his strongest asset. Parsons is not only fresh from a dashing victory in New York, but more recently from a visit to Oyster Bay, and it is believed that he would hardly be pushing the Hughes' boom unless it was agreeable to the national administration.

The Odell delegates in the New York delegation will be likely to vote for Hughes, as he was at one time considered Odell's choice and possibly the Odell delegates up-state would be for him. Odell has, after all, considerable strength in the convention and may become a factor in case of a close contest.

GREAT STORMS WILL COLLIDE

One Moving Southward, the Other Northward--Damage Expected.

Washington, September 24.—Two great storms are moving toward the east from opposition directions. Professor Gairott, of the weather bureau, said today that when they meet there will be a general fall of rain in the middle and eastern states. One of the disturbances is another West Indian hurricane, which was reported to the weather bureau this morning to be off the west end of the island of Cuba. The other is a rainstorm now prevailing in the northwest. The hurricane is moving northward and the northwest storm is moving southward, so that in the natural order of things they are expected to meet and considerable damage is likely to result. The West Indian hurricane is expected to reach the gulf coast tomorrow or Wednesday.

The weather bureau announced to-that the tropical disturbance has passed into the gulf of Mexico from the Yucatan channel. Its influence on the gulf coast has not been felt as yet, except on the south Florida coast, where high southeasterly winds are blowing.

Storm warnings are displayed on the south Florida peninsula and advisory messages have been sent by the weather bureau to all gulf ports.

NEW RAILROAD FOR GEORGIA

Georgia Eastern to Connect Sumter County With Dodge.

A new railroad connecting Americus, of Sumter county, with Eastman, in Dodge county, 80 miles long and running through Sumter, Dooly, Wilcox, Pulaski and Dodge counties, will soon be added to the railroads of Georgia. A charter for this road has been issued by Secretary of State Cook and the actual work of construction will be started in the immediate future.

The Georgia Eastern has been decided upon as the name of this new road and the capital stock at the start is placed at $100,000. All of the incorporators live at Vienna, in Dooly county, which point is reached by the new road. The mission of this new enterprise will be to open new territory, rich in agricultural resources, which has not enjoyed railroad facilities up to this time.

The Georgia Eastern will touch the Georgia, Southern and Florida at Vienna and also the Hawkinsville and Florida Southern. It will also connect with the Southern rialway at Eastman and by tapping the Dublin and Southwestern, form a through route from Americus to Dublin.

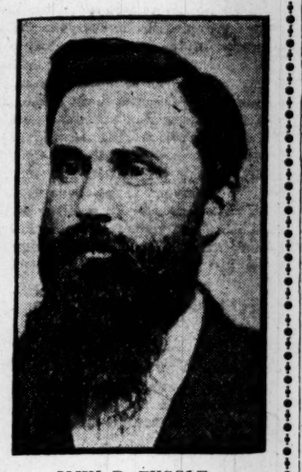

The incorporators named in the charter are J. P. Heard, J. O. Hamilton, Joseph Burns, P. G. McDonald, M. P. Hall, J. J. Cooper, C. T. Stovall, Ed Howell, D. H. Thompson and J. Frank Howell.

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN P. TUGGLE

Well Known Traveling Man Succumbs at Stone Mountain.

Stone Mountain, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—John Pinckney Tuggle, of Stone Mountain, died this morning at 2:30 o'clock, at his home in this city, of cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Tuggle was a well-known and highly esteemed citizen, and for a number of years has been one of the most popular traveling men in Georgia, being known everywhere as "Uncle John" or

JOHN P. TUGGLE,
Of Stone Mountain, Whose Death Occurred Yesterday.

"Honest John" Tuggle. He has two brothers and three sisters living in Atlanta.

He was born on March 28, 1847, in Greene county, Georgia, and was the third son of Pinckney J. and S. W. B. Tuggle. He served in the Georgia state guards during the latter part of the struggle of the 60's, as he was too young to enter the ranks of the confederate army.

After the war he was connected with the Southern Express Company for about two years, later going with the Georgia railroad as conductor. He was next connected with the firm of Howell Bros., wholesale grocers of Atlanta, until they dissolved.

He next went with the Maddox-Rucker company as traveling salesman, and remained with this firm until they sold out to W. A. Russell. He remained with the latter until the time of his death, and was a beneficiary under Mr. Russell's will in the sum of $1,000, willed to him on account of "long and faithful service."

Mr. Tuggle is survived by a widow and four children. His three sons are W. E. Tuggle, H. C. Tuggle and Frank Tuggle, and his daughter is the wife of Dr. W. T. McCurdy, all of whom live at Stone Mountain. He is also survived by three brothers, M. B. Tuggle, of 17 Ashland avenue, Atlanta; P. L. Tuggle, 21 Yonge street, Atlanta, and J. C. Tuggle, yardmaster of the Georgia railroad at Augusta. He leaves three sisters, Mrs. D. M. Vining, 129 Gilmer street, Atlanta; Mrs. F. P. Mims, who lives near Ponce de Leon springs in Atlanta, and Mrs. I. W. Boyles, of 77 Hampden street, Atlanta.

He married Miss Mary E. Cherry, daughter of Hilliard Cherry, of Macon, Ga., on June 29, 1869.

Since his retirement as traveling salesman about a year ago, he has been associated with his son, W. E. Tuggle, under the firm name of W. E. & J. P. Tuggle, of Stone Mountain.

The whole community mourns his loss, for no more popular or more universally loved citizen ever resided here. His remains will be interred at 1 o'clock tomorrow.

JELLICO RUINED; APPEALS FOR AID

Gravity of Situation Is More Appalling.

Many People in Humbler Circumstances Have Lost Practically Everything, and Contributions From Outside Have Been Asked.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 24.—Mayors Baird and Stewart, of Jellico, have given the Associated Press an urgent appeal for aid for the people of the town, which was practically ruined by a dynamite explosion last Friday morning. The appeal reads:

"Jellico, Tenn., September 24.—To the Public: The gravity of the situation in Jellico is more appalling than we at first anticipated. Saturday it was thought that we would be able to cope with the conditions that have arisen here as a result of the terrible dynamite explosion of last Friday morning. Later developments, however, reveal that it will be necessary for outside aid to be extended, in order to meet the demands for immediate relief that are now apparent. We at first decided to decline offers of outside assistance that have come to us from all parts of the country, but now, after further and sober thought, we are appalled at the destruction that has been caused and the suffering that has followed in its wake. Therefore, in the name of the people of Jellico, we declare that contributions of money or other material assistance will be gratefully received.

"The principal distress exists as a result of damages to property and stocks of goods, and household effects of residents of the town in addition to physical sufferings caused by injuries resultant from the explosion. Many of the people in humbler circumstances have lost practically everything they possessed. Some will never be able to reestablish themselves in business or otherwise if outside aid is not extended thm. A few hundred dollars here and there will greatly aid immediate distress and prevent mental and physical suffering in the future. It will put food in the mouths and clothes on the backs of the sufferers, as well as rebuilding the town where total destruction has been suffered, and in reaping the very extensive damage that is done in other sections. Few houses in the town escaped injury in some form. If the masses are made to depend on their own resources for relief, they will never recover. The substantial business men, while heavy losers, are not in need of assistance to the extent that those less fortunate should have. The fact that a question has been raised as to the liability for the accident causes grave doubts as to whether the sufferers will be able to recover any financial damages on account of the destruction accomplished. Contributions may be sent to D. D. Scott, recorder of the city of Jellico, Tenn., or Frank Snyder, clerk of the town of Jellico, Ky.

"R. B. BAIRD,
"Mayor of Jellico, Tenn.
"BAND STEWART,
"Mayor of Jellico, Ky."

At the coroner's inquest here today testimony was heard that about fifteen men were standing near the car of dynamite which exploded Friday morning, and all are supposed to have been killed. None of them are known.

A country woman, living near Jellico, visited the place searching for five children, to whom she gave permission to go to Jellico Friday and attend a circus. It is feared that they were also killed by the explosion and that the full list of dead will never be known.

The body of an unknown girl probably 2 years old was found today in a field a half mile from the scene of the explosion. It was perfectly nude, but not mangled.

Mayors Baird and Stewart, of the two Jellicos, today issued a general appeal for aid. The Knoxville board of trade held a general citizens' meeting tonight, at which subscriptions were taken for the explosion sufferers. Many of the poor at Jellico are destitute of food and clothing and will suffer unless the situation is immediately relieved.

The cororner's jury finished its investigation today and rendered a verdict that the explosion was due to the criminal negligence of either the Louisville and Nashville or Southern railways, or both, or their employees.

PIKE'S PEAK CENTENNIAL

Thousands Gather to Celebrate at Colorado Springs.

Colorado Springs, Colo., September 24.—The Pike centennial celebration, commemorating the discovery of Pike's peak by the man whose name it bears, opened here today.

Vice President Fairbanks and Mrs. Fairbanks arrived in the city from the east early in the morning and were escorted to the Antlers hotel by Thomas F. Walsh, whose guests they will be for several weeks. Congressman Brooks and several other prominent citizens also acted on the reception committee.

The principal feature of today's programme was the holding of patriotic exercises at the Grand opera house under the auspicies of the Daughters of the American revolution and the National Society of Colonial Dames of America.

Conditions today could not have been more favorable had they been made to order. A glorious Colorado sunrise, garbong in red and gold the peak that is in reality the center of attraction for the assembled thousands, ushered today in.

STENSLAND, SR., LANDED IN N. Y.

If He Was Not Kidnaped, Son Will Not Fight Extradition.

New York, September 24.—The steamer Prinz Adelbert, on which Paul O. Stensland, the fugitive Chicago bank president, is being returned to the United States in custody of federal officers, reached quarantine station about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The tug carrying Charles L. Binns, a representative of the Illinois states attorney, and Joseph T. Kinler, a Chicago detective, met the Prinz Adelbert on her arrival at the quarantine station, with the intention of transferring Stensland from the ship to the railroad station in Jersey City, where he would be placed on board of a train for Chicago.

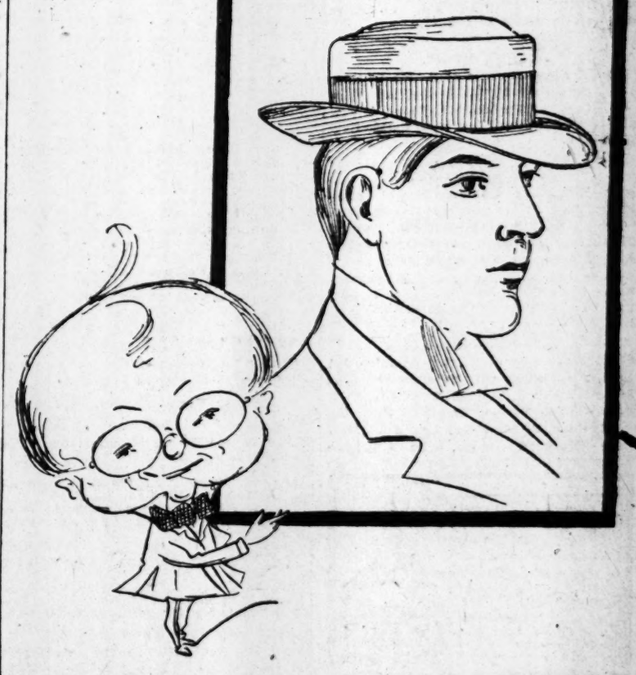

Theodore O. Stensland, son of the former banker, was on the tug. Before leaving for quarantine, Theodore Stensland said: "If my father was kidnaped from Morocco and not properly arrested there, I shall fight extradition from New Jersey to Illinois. I shall first demand of Assistant States Attorney Harry Olson permission to talk with my father, both as his son and his lawyer.

"If I find that my father was regularly arrested in Tangier, there is little late now. While he could begin habeas corpus proceedings, it would mean only that I can do in his behalf. It is too a few days' delay. This decision may be changed if I find that my father was illegally and unjustly arrested."

Stensland will be taken to Chicago tomorrow morning. Harry Olsen, assistant state's attorney of Illinois, who accompanied Stensland, stated tonight that the prisoner had made a confession to him while en route from Tangier. Theodore Stensland, the banker's son, immediately afterwards issued a statement in which he said that his father would plead guilty to certain of the indictments charging violation of the Illinois state banking laws after he had examined the indictments. He would not plead guilty to forgery, but would reveal everything leading up to the wrecking of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, and in so doing would implicate other men prominent in the financial circles of Chicago.

He added that if there was a shortage of more than $400,000 in the accounts of the bank his father would prove that Cashier Hering was responsible for everything above that amount.

Sheltering Arms Day.

WHAT promises to be one of the great attractions of the coming Sheltering Arms day at Ponce de Leon park next Friday are the attendants who have promised to act on that occasion. Among these will be many of the very prettiest girls in all Atlanta, who will be on hand to sell tickets, superintend the many attractions and help in the good time generally.

The ladies of the Sheltering Arms are still busy adding to the big programme which has already been arranged. According to their own statements they mean to keep right on adding to these attractions until the many amusements offered at Ponce de Leon next Friday excel any similar occasion in the history of the mission. This is saying much when some of their elaborate entertainments of the past are remembered.

Thanks to the generosity of General Representative Hugh Cordoza, of the Jake Wells enterprises, the beautiful resort at Ponce de Leon will be turned over to the Sheltering Arms on Friday for their very own. Mr. Cordoza insists on giving all of the credit to Mr. Wells and the ladies of the Sheltering Arms who are working so earnestly to make Happy Friday the great success it is certain to be.

As has been previously reported, the executive committee has decided to sell combination tickets, good for each and every one of the attractions at the park, for only 50 cents. This is much less than half of the regular amount usually charged.

All of which means that every cent spent next Friday will not only go to the very best cause possible in the way of deserving charity, but it will also provide more than double the usual amount of entertainment. Features of the big entertainment at the Casino will be announced later. It is expected that this entertainment will be one of the most enjoyable of the entire day.

ROAD COMPLETED; PEOPLE REJOICE

Yesterday Was Gala Day in Tattnall, Liberty and McIntosh Counties.

Darien, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—This has been a red letter day for Tattnall, Liberty and McIntosh counties, due to the inauguration of a through passenger service from Collins to Darien by the Georgia Coast and Piedmont railroad. The first train left Collins at 9:30 this morning and arrived at Darien at 4 o'clock this afternoon on time, it being in the personal charge of General Passenger Agent Walsh. Conductor Jordan and Engineer Dean were running the train. Representatives of the press and quite a number of passengers were handled, and at every town, village and hamlet the train was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd of spectators, who speeded the train on her first trip with their hearty cheers.

The opening of this line means a great deal for the citizens of the counties through which the line passes and gives the citizens of the wiregrass counties of Tattnall and Liberty a chance to visit their friends in McIntosh and enjoy the fine salt water bathing and sea food. This new line is also a short cut of nearly 80 miles from points in Tattnall, Toombs, Emanuel and surrounding counties to all points in south Georgia on and reached by the Atlantic Coast Line.

BONES THOSE OF MORGAN

Identification of Skeleton Found on St. Catherine's Island.

Valdosta, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—The remains of Lieutenant Henry Morgan, formerly of this city, will be brought here from Savannah for burial. The skeleton was exhumed on last Friday by George Pinder, of this city, and Captain Gus Emler, of Savannah, from the shallow grave on St. Catherine's island, near Savannah, where it has reposed for about six years and a half. Lieutenant Morgan was drowned in a severe storm on Tybee Island in August, 1898, and, notwithstanding a prolonged search for the body was made, it was given up for lost.

Recently two negroes on St. Catherine's island reported having found, more than six years ago, the skeleton of a man partially clad in an army uniform which they buried at the place—marking the grave. Mr. Pinder and Captain O. Emler took these negroes with them to the spot and found the remains. They satisfied themselves that the bones were those of Lieutenant Morgan. W. L. Morgan, his father, today gave instructions to have them shipped here for burial. Lieutenant Morgan was a West Point graduate, stationed at Tybee, and lost his life while attempting to rescue the crew of an Italian bark wrecked in the storm.

ANSLEY CALLS OFF AUCTION

Ansley Park Lots Will Wait For More Settled Weather.

Rain once more prevented the promised auction sale of lots at Ansley Park yesterday afternoon. Shortly after noon a light shower arrived. Later, by the time 2:30 o'clock arrived, the hour set for the beginning of the sale, the rain was pouring down hard and all those who had assembled were glad to rush for cover.

Edwin P. Ansley, when seen regarding the postponement of the sale, made the following statement: "I have already postponed my sale once and now that the equinoxtial season is upon us, the weather is so apt to remain unsettled that I have finally decided to postpone the auction sale of the eighty-three lots indefinitely. While I am taking this action, it is my purpose to hold the sale as soon as the weather settles down again, but I will give plenty and sufficient notice of the date of the sale in the newspapers. I think it is better to do this than it is to make every preparation with the probability of having to postpone it again. Just wait until Atlanta weather is itself once more and then I will hold the sale, as advertised, and everybody will know about it."

PLEASED WITH BURTON'S VISIT

Alabamans Enthusiastic for Appropriation for Alabama River.

Montgomery, Ala., September 24.—(Special.)—The people of the middle section of Alabama are highly pleased with the visit of Judge T. E. Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee of the lower house of congress, and anticipate that it will result in the Alabama river receiving that attention it deserves at the hands of the congress. It will give him an insight into the situation in the south, and Alabama especially, not secured in any other way.

The Alabama River Improvement Association, headed by W. F. Vandiver, of this city, has long been trying to get the men who have the distribution of the money to come and look at the Alabama river. Mr. Vandiver has long believed that this would give them such valuable information they would be willing to help in the ways asked. Mr. Vandiver has expressed regret that the city had not a good wharf built before the party came, but feels that the situation is so patent that even this is not essential to success.

Another feature of the situation is the nomination of Congressman Bankhead for alternate senator, this being a good thing to have done for the waterways. Mr. Bankhead, who is the ranking member of the democrats on the committee headed by Mr. Burton, will have much influence in securing money next year with the prestige of his election to the higher honors.

SYNDICATE BUYS WADLEY DIRT

T. M. Cheatham, Representing Atlanta Capital, Makes Purchase.

Wadley, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—T. M. Cheatham, of Broxton, Ga., representing a big Atlanta syndicate, closed a deal with Roberson, Lee & Co., this week that means much towards the making of a greater and bigger Wadley. Parts of the Calhoun estate and the Donovan property, known as the baseball lot, are included in the deal. The total consisting of about fifty acres of the very best residence property in Wadley. So soon as arrangements can be made, a corpse of surveyors will cut the property into lots. Beautiful streets will be made and residences erected.

As a further evidence of the wonderful growth of Wadley, there has just been granted a franchise to Messrs. Cockrill and Bethea by the town of Wadley to install an electric light plant and water works. A $50,000 saw mill being erected by the Wadley Yellow Pine Lumber Company will increase the population of Wadley 75 per cent by the 1st of January next.

Cantaloupes can be raised around Wadley like the celebrated Elberta peach around Fort Valley. And in the early spring an ice plant is to be erected to take care of the shipments of this delicious fruit.

RUSSELL TO RUN FOR JUDGESHIP

Former Candidate for Governor Decides to Make Race.

Judge R. B. Russell has yielded to the urgent requests of his friends and has decided to make the race for the court of appeals, though, as he states, he will not have time to make any canvass of the state.

Since he has had the matter under consideration at the request of friends he has received numerous letters and telegrams urging him to run, and yesterday he wrote the following card in which he announces that he is in the race:

"Winder, Ga., September 24.—To the White Voters of Georgia: Without any consultation or intimation to me some of my over-partial friends paid the assessment necessary to place my name on the official democratic ballot for the primary October 3. This, per force, entered my name for one of the three judgeships of the proposed court of appeals. The first knowledge of this fact came to me through the daily press.

"Sitting in the shadows of a bereavement, which took from our home circle my youngest son, nothing was further from my mind than public office. I had no desire to tax my friends or obtrude myself upon the public, but in consideration of personal appeals consented to take the matter under advisement. Since the entry of my name by my friends my heart has been touched by the hundreds of voluntary letters and telegrams from all sections of the state requesting that I consent to the use of my name. These require an answer.

"I am not unconscious of the high honor of the responsible position to be filled and if the voters in the primary of October 3 nominate me I will gratefully devote all my energies to giving the people of the state the best service in my power.

"Present conditions make impossible any canvass on my part. Grateful for the many expressions of confidence and support I have received, I leave the matter in the hands of the voters. If elected I shall feel much honored in being permitted to devote the best years of my life and my past judicial experience to the service of Georgia on this new court. If, on the other hand, you choose three of the many distinguished candidates to the exclusion of myself in this unsolicited presentation of my name, it will cause no complaint. Yours truly,

"RICHARD B. RUSSELL."

THEY DID NOT GET BURTON.

Savannah, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) The delegation of Savannah men, headed by Major W. W. Williamson, president of the Savannah chamber of commerce, and Vice President A. R. Lawton, of the Central of Georgia railway, who went to Montgomery, Ala., to see Congressman Burton, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee of the national house of representatives, returned to this city today, but without Mr. Burton.

They had expected to bring him back with them in the private car of Colonel Lawton.

Mr. Burton had a long talk with the delegation, who showed him the needs of the Savannah harbor. He told them that he would do what he could to see that an adequate appropriation for the harbor is made.

NEGRO FIREMAN FELL VICTIM.

Southern Train Delayed by Search for a New Fireman.

Columbus, Ga., September 24.—(Special.) The Southern railway passenger train from Atlanta, due to arrive in Columbus at 10 o'clock, was an hour late, the result of its fireman, a negro, being shot in the leg twice and seriously wounded on an Atlanta street at daybreak, as he was going to his engine. The delay was occasioned in securing another fireman.

Alabama School President Sick.

Montgomery, Ala., September 24.—(Special.)—W. C. Jackson and Thomas Taylor have been relieved as watchmen at the capitol. Joel Barnett was relieved last week. The governor said he would not allow any man who watches the treasury of the state to drink a drop of liquor on or off duty, and that he would discharge any man who does so.

DISTRESS WAIL FROM CLEMSON

Cock-Fighters Have Troubles of Their Own--Little Good Material.

Clemson College, September 24.—(Special.)—There is a wail in the Tiger camp this year that is not without cause. It is for lack of material for the football team. The new men are smaller than usual. The old players failed to return to college. The question is: What can be done?

Everybody is looking to C. Robert Williams, Clemson's famous coach—famous, if for no other reason, because when he coached Carolina he twisted the Tiger's tail and wrung tears from Heisman's eyes. Up to that sad day Clemson had thought Heisman almost invincible, but from that day the weirdness of the wizard went wandering from the Tiger's lair, and now the cubs have set their affections on a new idol. Williams is "it." The boys certainly like him and believe in him, and trust to him to beat Heisman and all other bogies of the ball field. But there comes the trouble. He can't play by himself.

Where are the men of last year's strong team? McIver, McLaurin, Gaston, Ellison, Gelzer, Keasler, Dickson? All gone.

Only Captain Futrick and O. L. Derrick of the seasoned men are back. Lykes is one of the best players of last year's team, but he needs toughening. He never gives up and will make a star. Summers is a big man, and may play. But four men can't make a team. There are no recruits from the new men, because Carolina prep schools do not indulge in football.

Coach Williams is working hard, but he certainly has struck Clemson at a hard time. He has his men practicing very day faithfully, but any one can see that he is trying to solve a hard problem.

Clemson has a fairly good schedule. Of course, the game with Tech is the one all want to win.

October 6—Clemson v. Welsh Neck High school at Clemson.

October 13—Clemson v. Mercer university at Macon, Ga.

October 20—Clemson v. University of Georgia at Clemson.

October 23—Clemson v. Agricultural and Mechanical of North Carolina at Columbia (fair week).

November 3—Clemson v. Davidson at Charlotte.

November 10—Clemson v. Auburn at Clemson.

November 17—Clemson v. University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

November 29—Clemson v. Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

VIRGINIA COACH HOPEFUL.

Much Good Material Is on Hand Though Veterans Are Missed. Carolina Game Off.

University of Virginia, September 24.—(Special.)—King Cole, coach of Yost's veterans, who has been coaching Virginia for the past two seasons, and Captain Johnson stated today that Cid Dominion's football prospects are more favorable than in years, though but few of last year's varsity have returned.

The six months' rule, which is being enforced rigidly, will bar some excellent material, such as Sawree, of Sewanee; Caldwell, of Tennessee, and others.

Thorpe, of Columbia's 1904 team, has not returned, but such familiar faces as those of "Empty" Cooke, last year's captain; Randolph, at quarter, Fletcher, Maddox and Johnson adorn the gridiron daily. Virginia's line-up will have weight in abundance, but there may be some deficiency in speed.

Waples, last season's fast half, and Crawford are at the university, but will not play.

Because of a disagreement Virginia and North Carolina's game has been canceled and the former's Thanksgiving engagement is with the Carlisle Indians at Norfolk.

McIver on the campus of the state and industrial college. He pays a high tribute to him and appoints the following committee to raise the necessary funds: James Y. JUDGE HENRY ENTERS THE RACE

Launched Candidacy for Appellate Civil Judgeship.

Rome, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Judge W. M. Henry, for twelve years judge of the superior court of the Rome circuit, is actively in the race for one of the three judgships of the court of appeals.

In advocacy of his candidacy, Judge Henry has issued the following announcement, which will be read with great interest by his hosts of friends throughout the state of Georgia:

"To the People of Georgia: I am a candidate for the nomination as one of the judges of the court of appeals. I am in the prime of mature middle life. As to my qualifications and fitness for that important office, I beg to refer you to the statements and indorsements of the bar of this county and circuit, where I have lived all my life, practiced law for many years, and served, for twelve years as judge of the superior courts, as well as to the statements and indorsements of other gentlemen, official and otherwise, whose opportunities to know me as man, lawyer and judge, have been the best.

"For nearly forty years northwest Georgia, that splendid part of the state lying north and west of the Chattahoochee river, has had no one of her sons upon the supreme bench. That bench is now graced by six able and distinguished lawyers from other parts of our commonwealth. As you know, the court of appeals will have three judges. This section of the state does not ask to furnish all of these, but does respectfully ask to furnish a part of them.

"You have observed that, under the terms of the resolution providing for this primary election, you can and must vote for three men, in order to have your ballot counted. May I not hope to have my name one of the three on your ballot? If so, I shall gratefully appreciate your support, and, if elected, I will show that appreciation, in the best way possible, by diligently using every power I have, of brain and heart, to make Georgia a just and efficient judge. Sincerely yours, W. M. HENRY.

"September 24, 1906."

HARNESS RACES AT CINCINNATI

Bystander, Outsider, Is Easy Winner of 2.13 Pace.

Cincinnati, September 24.—The fifth grand circuit meeting opened here today with a good crowd in attendance. Sweet Marie, who broke her own record at Columbus last week, was the especial attraction of the day. Sweet Marie was driven by A. P. McDonald in an attempt to break her record of 2:02. The best she could do was 2:04 3-4.

The 2:13 pace brought out a field of seventeen. Carrie B. was the favorite in the betting. In the first heat Queen of Clubs bolted into the outside fence, carrying Miss Gay and Country Boy with her and interfering with five other horses. Three were distanced in this heat, but the judges decided that the accident was unavoidable and allowed all horses to start in the second heat. Bystander, an outsider, won the first heat in easy fashion. Carrie B. was again made the favorite in the second heat, but Bystander beat her in a hard drive by a head. The third and final heat went to Bystander. In this heat Miss Gay, driven by Thomas T. Murphy, was run into by Country Boy, driven by Cox. Both men were thrown from their sulkies. Murphy sustained a broken collar bone, but Cox was uninjured. Only four horses started in the 2-year-old division of the Horse Review futurity, and Blue Hill was an easy winner in straight heats. In the 3-year-old division Governor Francis was an easy winner in straight heats.

The track was lightning fast.

THEATERS.

At the Grand.

The main fact of interest, about Wonderland is that it serves to bring back to Atlanta Mary Marble and Little Chip.

They are the real fun makers of the whole production, and their efforts throughout the evening won the generous and indulgent tribute that the local theatergoers voluntarily accord to these two who have entertained them so often.

Despite the request of Mayor Woodward that all good Atlantans should remain at home after nightfall, the house was well filled, and the audience a most representative one. They applauded the songs and dances of the two stars, admired the handsome costuming and the couple of attractive stage pictures that the play afforded, and generously yielded the time that the others occupied when the favorites were not on the boards. The fact that practically no support was given the leading fun makers, was overlooked, and the absence of good voices in the chorus was condoned, for the chorus was well gowned and fresh and attractive, and then, it was Little Chip and Mary Marble the audience came out to see.

So there is no attempt to criticise the performance unfavorably, for the visitors to "Wonderland" went home probably well satisfied with themselves, and with the evening's entertainment.

Mary Marble has just the piquant charm and her voice and juvenile makeup, is just as attractive as when she won Atlanta's approval in the past, and Little Chip fully sustained his unique reputation as a fun maker.

The story of "The Toast of the Town," Viola Allen's late success, is laid in the time of George the Third, and relates the story of a famous actress of the time, one Betty Singleton—who was "the toast of the town," and who among other things was wed to a royal personage. Of course, there was no such actress during the time of George the Third as Betty Singleton; but there was, however, a fair creature named Elizabeth Farren, who became the countess of Derby.

How much of Miss Farren's career was welted into the play can not, of course, be told; but what is known of Betty Singleton in the play, and of Miss Farren in real life, are as near alike as two peas in a pod. Miss Farren was an Irish girl, born in Cork, 1759. She first charmed London audiences in 1777, appearing at the Haymarket as Miss Hardcastle. She was the original Rosina in the "Barbear of Seville," and charmed all by her playfulness and dignity. She appeared principally at Drury Lane and the Haymarket, and chiefly in the parts of fine ladies, for as one writer said, "Her beautiful expression, her superbly modulated voice, her clear and refined pronunciation, made her fine aly a per-

Horace Walpole said she was "the most perfect actress he had ever seen." Charles James Fox was seriously attached to her; but upon the death of the countess of Derby, the only daughter of the duke of Hamilton, she was wed to the earl of Derby. Her farewell to the stage occurred on the 8th of April, 1797.

Jane Kennark has accepted the role of Betty Singleton, and will appear in "The Toast of the Town" Wednesday and Thursday, for three performances, at the Grand.

Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger announce under their direction next week at the Grand thle new music pay, "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," by George M. Cohan, of "Little Johnny Jones," "The Governor's Son," "George Washington, Jr.," etc. It is described as a great novelty, comprising comedy drama, burlesque, melodrama and musical comedy, all cleverly interwoven into a most interesting story possessed of an unusual degree of novelty. In the conception of the tale, selection of characters and originality of situations, Mr. Cohan has shown the same remarkable genius for getting together novelties and surprises that was noticeable in his popular "Little Johnny Jones." The entire book and lyrics are his own, as well as the music, and in addition he is said to have cast the piece and rehearsed the company personally.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

The first outward sign of Contagious Blood Poison is a small sore or blister. As the poisonous virus becomes more firmly entrenched in the blood a red eruption appears on the body, the mouth and throat ulcerate, the hair begins to come out, glands in the neck and groin swell, copper colored spots appear on the breast, back, etc., and the unfortunate victim finds himself diseased from head to foot. Mercury and potash do not cure Contagious Blood Poison; they shut the disease up in the system and remove the outward symptoms for awhile, but when the treatment is left off the trouble returns. Then the system being weakened from the action of these strong minerals the disease makes more rapid headway than before. S. S. S. is the antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It cures permanently and certainly by going down into the blood and removing every vestige of the virus. It is free from all minerals, and while purifying the blood it builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. S. S. S. destroys every particle of the poison and removes all danger of transmitting it to others. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is a perfect blood purifier. Book with instructions for self treatment and any medical advice free.

COTTON MARKET WAS MORE ACTIVE

Opened 5 to 9 Points Lower in Response to Liverpool.

After Early Rally Market Turned Easier Under Increased Offerings and Large Estimates for India Crop—Closed 9 to 13 Points Net Lower.

New York, September 24.—The cotton market was more active today and generally easier with the close steady at a net decline of 9@13 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 5@9 points, which was a shade better than due on the lower cables and favorable weather reports owing to covering by recent sellers for profits, and the market rallied within 2 or 3 points of Saturday's finals, during the early session on this demand. There were also rumors that spinners were buying on a scale down, but private cables from Liverpool reported increase of southern offerings, big estimates for the India crop, and a slack trade demand and prices showed little disposition to rally there. The local market consequently turned easier before midday under increased offerings through wire and commission houses and the low point was reached in the late trading. October made a new low record but later months did not reach low figures touched at the end of August.

Receipts at the ports today were 43,409 bales against 31,058 last week and 53,812 last year. For the week 295,000 bales against 185,934 last week and 293,723 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 8,984 against 4,427 last year and at Houston 14,720 against 16,164 last year.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New Orleans, September 24.—Spot cotton closed easy 1-16 lower from Saturday; middling 9 3-16; spot sales were 1,525 with 1,875 to arrive. Futures opened steady, 1 point up to 3 points down for the active list. The Liverpool cables were bearish. Much support was withdrawn from the market temporarily by the arrival in the city of W. J. Bryan. The market closed steady 2 to 4 points under Saturday's final figures.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, September 24.—The dry goods market opened quiet and firm. Weather conditions were regarded as having an unusual prospective effect upon trade. The dress goods market continued in a generally healthy condition with the style trend for the moment toward fancy fabrics. The cotton goods market was especially strong in the bleached goods division and in single filling ducks. Print cloths continued to sell readily.

Liverpool Cotton Market.

Liverpool, September 24, 12:30 p. m.—Cotton spots quiet; prices easier 8 points lower; middling upland 5.47; sales 6,000 bales; speculation and export 500; receipts 6,200, all American.

Futures opened easier.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, September 24.—COTTON—European markets continue to show a weak undertone and little resistance to the selling of the contracts they purchased last spring and summer against their sales to spinners. As they buy the cotton in the south, they resell these contracts, which, coming on markets without any large amount of speculation, cause a decline. Here the fluctuations since the opening represent the indisposition of the local traders to remain short of the market. Each point decline is fought over with many more eager bidders than sellers. So that the decline is slow, although the weather is generally favorable and the movement is on the increase. This condition of the trade is in sharp contrast to the bearish feeling shown when we were at this point on the previous decline. A part of the steadiness is due to the fear that the storm in the gulf may find its way over the gulf states.

Ware & Leland.

New York, September 24.—COTTON—Following the sharp decline on Saturday there was a break in the market this morning with December selling down to within a few points of 9c again. Trading was along rather liberal lines with a large amount of cotton being covered by shorts, but after this demand was satisfied, prices ran off rather easily. The decline from 9.10 for December to 9.04 took place more rapidly than any decline in some time. Operations were of a character to lead many to believe that the crop has advanced to a point where the larger interests are now willing to resume aggressive bear operations. The recent strength in the market has been nothing more than a natural steadiness, following an extensive decline, and now that cotton seems to be for sale in larger quantities in the south and we are on the eve of a large October movement, inducements to buy seem to be less numerous and for this reason a little selling has turned the market downward again. Reports from very good people in the south indicate a very large crop and freer offerings likely after September shipments are out of the way. The usual quantity was contracted for September, but the lateness of the crop in many sections left an urgent demand from some of these interests and as soon as this has been supplied a substantial part of the support will be withdrawn.

Chicago, September 24.—WHEAT—The market started out strong, due to buying by the crowd and commission houses, lighter receipts in the northwest and the strength abroad, especially in Paris. Bullish sentiment was intensified by predictions for showers in the northwest and a notable circumstance early was the smallness of offerings. Prominent operators were on the buying side, including Patten, while the bulk of the selling appeared to come from cash houses. Large receipts are expected at Duluth and well posted people in the northwest were predicting a heavier movement now that the weather has settled. Strong efforts are being made to create bullish sentiment, and there is a possibility that prices may be forced little higher, but we doubt if buying movements will extend very far, and in all events will allow of selling operations being renewed.

CORN—Selling orders appeared in all the futures at the start due to fine weather and large receipts, and there was some pressure on the September kind by the Armour house, although the strength in wheat induced shorts to cover. It looks like a scalping market, but whenever prices are pounded down we would favor taking on the December kind.

OATS—There was good buying of the futures, more so of the December kind, by commission houses and it looked as if that month was being taken on by houses identified with the cereal interests. Buying was of a good character; in fact, many long lines were reinstated, and there is more or less show for bullish sentiment to expand, especially through purchases on the weak spots.

PROVISIONS—The market was quite strong, with local and foreign shorts covering October lard, while many buying orders were sent on January product, owing to the strength in hogs. Further advances will no doubt tend to create realizing sales, for the market is not a broad one by any means.

New York, September 24.—STOCKS—The stock market was depressed today by fear of tight money in the next few days in New York, London and Berlin, and the reactionary tendency will discount it, according to our deductions. We find nowhere an inclination to prosecute a bear campaign. The utmost these preaching drops will go is that a sharp shake-out may occur. The prosperity of the county seems to be the bulwark of the bull party, which is relying upon it to check any real bear market. We think this position is correct. On reasonable recessions we would buy, taking on a scale down if possible, believing the market will go higher later. We advocate conservative speculation.

Edmund & Charles Randolph.

Atlanta, September 24.—COTTON—New York opened very much depressed this morning, owing to the unexpected decline abroad of 5 or 6 points. All options sold at lower levels than at any time since the last government condition report. The market was up 4 to 5 points from the lowest during the middle of the afternoon, but showed little rallying power after the decline. Speculation was small, but trading was about as active as earlier in the day. Spots were off 15 points at New York and 1-16c at New Orleans with sales of 1,525 bales. Liverpool is due to show a further decline of 3 points tomorrow to meet our close. I do not think the foreign market will follow our decline any further at present, and believe the market is a purchase now for a turn. The weather prognostications were for a wet map tomorrow and next day. The sun crossed the equator today and I look for another bad spell and lower temperatures. Texas continues to send in many damaging reports from boll weevil, but the consensus of opinion seems to be that that state will have a big enough yield to offset the trouble in Georgia, Alabama and the Carolinas. This is predicated on the idea that they will have a big top crop and an open fall with late frost. I think that is a pretty big "if," for we have had nothing but open falls and late frost for several years, and it is getting about time the reverse should happen.

STOCKS—Opening sales were on a fairly liberal scale and a general decline was shown throughout the list, the market overcame its early weakness, but fell back again on realizing. Western roads were conspicuously weak. Reading is still being sold by professionals whenever any strength is shown. Atchison is quite strongly supported. In the late trading the market gained back all its loss of the morning and closed strong at the best prices of the day, which in the case of leading stocks was at an advantage of $1 to $1.25 above Saturday's close. The cause of the late advance was said to be a rumor that Secretary Shaw would deposit $40,000,000 with depositary banks.

WHEAT STRONG ENTIRE SESSION

Small Movement Formed Basis for Active Demand.

The Firmness Was Accentuated by Advance in Liverpool — Visible Supply Showed Smaller Increase Than Expected. Closing Tone Strong.

Chicago, September 24.—Small receipts of wheat at Minneapolis formed the basis for a strong market for wheat here today. At the close wheat for December delivery was up 5-8c. Corn was up 1-8@1-4c. Oats showed a gain of 1-4c. Provisions were 2 1-2 to 10c higher.

Sentiment in the wheat pit was bullish all day. Despite favorable weather in the spring wheat country for the movement of the crop, arrivals today at Minneapolis were comparatively light, the total arrivals there being reported at 416 cars, against 881 for the corresponding day one year ago. This small movement caused an active demand here for wheat, and with only moderate offerings, the market developed considerable strength. The firmness was accentuated by advance in the price of wheat at Liverpool. Trading during the first hour was active. Toward midday the market reacted on selling by local longs, but soon became strong and held firm for the remainder of the session. The visible supply showed a smaller increase than was expected, a gain of 920,000 bushels being recorded in the United States and Canada during the past week. The market closed strong. December wheat opened 1-8@3-8c higher at 74 7-8 to 75 1-8c, sold up to 75 1-2c and closed at 75 3-8c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 88,700. Primary receipts were 1,289,000 bushels, against 1,975,000 for the corresponding day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 833 cars, against 868 last week and 1,352 one year ago.

The feature of trading in the corn pit was selling of the September delivery by a leading local long. This caused a decline of 1c a bushel in the price of that option and brought about a moderate decline in all other deliveries.

The market was also bearishly affected by liberal local receipts, arrivals today being about 200 cars in excess of the expected number. During the last half of the day the market became more firm on buying brought out by the strength of wheat. The volume of trading was small. The market closed firm. December corn opened 1-8c lower at 42 5-8c, sold off to 42 1-2@42 5-8c and then advanced to 43 1-8c. The close was at 42 7-8@43c. Total receipts 642 cars, 374 contract grade.

Liberal local receipts and the weakness of corn depressed oats early in the day. Later, however, the market became firm on good buying by commission houses, supposed to be acting for northwestern interests. December opened 1-8@1-4c lower at 33 3-8c, advanced to 33 7-8@34c, and closed at 33 3-4@33 7-8c. Local receipts 411 cars. The close was firm.

Provisions were firm all day on a good general demand. Shipment of lard and meal was large and the price of live hogs advanced 5@10c. At the close January pork was up 10 to 12 1-2c at $13.32 1-2@13.35. Lard was up 2 1-2c at $7.82 1-2@7.85. Ribs were 2 1-2@5c higher at $7.12 1-2.

Estimated for tomorrow: Wheat 84 cars; corn 679; oats 314; hogs 23,000 head.

CHANCE AIDS IN THIEF-TAKING

An Apt Illustration in the Case of a Notorious French Criminal.

(Vance Thompson in Everybody's Magazine.)

The theory of M. Goron, one of the world's greatest detectives, is that in thief-taking, as in everything else, system is of prime importance; and after that the most effective auxiliary of the detective is chance. Almost always it is by a lucky hazard that the shrewd criminal is brought down. For instance, the taking of Magne; it was tragically absurd—for the farce ended in the basket of wet sawdust under the guillotine.

He was the most accomplished rogue of his day in Paris. His education, in prison and out, had set an extremely fine edge upon him. He was quick-witted and audacious. And then there was a kind of artistic perfection in his way of committing crime. The mere stealing was only a part of the wicked comedy he lived by. Thus, one night he broke into the house of a jeweler in the rue de Thorigny and secured a loot of diamonds and gold. Undetected he slipped out, leaving the door so he could open it again from without. When he had hid his plunder in a safe place he strolled about the streets, until he found a poor devil of a vagabond, drowsing on a bench. He took the outcast into the warmth of a wine shop and steeped him in drink. Then gently he led him to the rue de Thorigny and put him to bed—with watches and rings in his pockets—on the floor of the jeweler's shop. That was good in its way, but he put the finishing touch to the crime by notifying the police and watching from across the street the arrest of the drunken "burglar."

By reason of exploits of this kind—and very many of them—the detectives of the Surete hunted Monsieur Magne through the high and low ways of Paris; and did not find him. While they were looking for him in the Quarter of the Madeleine, they would hear of him out by the Gare du Nord, and indeed this robbery was his last and greatest crime, for in order to get the jeweler's keys, he killed a clerk who slept in the office. Within a few hours there were at least a dozen detectives hunting him—the keenest hounds in the pack. In spite of them all, Monsieur Magne had gone free, had not the Lucky Hazard tripped him up. It was like this:

A man of middle age, stout, of good appearance, had been stopping at a hotel in the due de Rivoli, for a week or two; he was known as the Comte de Bonneville. A fortnight after the murder he had his luggage put on a cab and ordered the cocher to drive to the Gare Saint-Lazare for the London train. On the way he stopped at a tobacconist's and bought a supply of cigars. He paid with a gold louis and received his change in silver, including a two-franc piece. It was a counterfeit and the cabman refused to take it.

"I'll not be cheated like that," said the count, "no—not if I lose my train for London. Drive back to the tobacco shop."

The tobacconist swore that he had not given the coin in change, and the dispute rose so high that a policeman was called in. He took both the men to the police station, and the cab trailed along after them. The Comte de Bonneville went readily enough, for he was full of wrath; but he had hardly begun his story when a fellow who was idling by the fire leaped on him and bore him to the floor. A prison warder, whose presence in the police station was wholly accidental, recognized—not the form or face—the voice of the old convict, Magne. And when they stripped the wig and padded coat from him, he held out his wrists for the handcuffs and said:

"Well, you've got me—and all for forty dirty sous."

STOCKS DECLINED IN EARLY TRADING

Due to Selling Pressure Over Money Outlook.

Market Made Strong Recovery in the Afternoon, Wiping Out the Early Losses — Harriman Pacifics Were Notably Strong in the Final Hour.

New York, September 24.—Disturbed sentiment over the money outlook induced considerable selling pressure on the stock market today and it was not until accumulated selling orders had been worked off to some extent that a recovery set in. The rally had about wiped out the early losses by the middle of the afternoon. The early selling was reinforced to a considerable extent by short selling for account of professional bear traders. The weekly arrival of South African gold in London furnished material for New York's demand, which yielded an additional engagement of about a million dollars. There were no withdrawals from the Bank of England for New York and no further supply was secured in Paris. The bidding for the gold in London advanced the open market rates another fraction. Discounts hardened also in Paris and Berlin and expectation was reported of another rise in the official rate of the Imperial Bank of Germany this week; while the official rate at the Bank of England remains at 4 per cent, that institution demands 4½ per cent on American bills and 5 per cent for money. The prospect, therefore, is for much smaller engagements of gold this week than last. Recent subtreasury operations also are making a drain on the banks, although not in the proportion suggested by the wrong inclusion of the repayments of gold imports. The late recovery became strong, but the only stocks to yield any considerable net gains were the Harriman Pacifics, Atchison, Reading and Amalgamated Copper.

Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $1,850,000.

Foreign Finances.

London, September 24.—American securities opened dull and lower today. First prices were 1-8@5-8 below Saturday's New York closing. Americans started weak on Saturday's decline in Wall street, which checked speculative ventures here. The market ruled dull in the forenoon, with prices below parity. The New York advices received later did not assist the market and after a small advance prices eased and trading closed dull. Copper shares were strong in sympathy with the advance in the price of the metal.

The United States today secured between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 of this week's gold supply totaling $2,500,000. The price was 78s.

Connecticut Tobacco

(From The Hartford Courant.)

Take a trolley to Glastonbury or Manchester or up either side of the river and you will be amazed at the amount of tobacco to be seen right from the cars. It stands now, much of it, as high as a man, its leaves are as big as elephant's ears, and with the topping that exposes a broken surface there spreads out into the air all about the peculiar smell that is a part of the weed. It is more agreeable even to some smokers than the smoke itself.

Individual farmers have crops standing today that will be worth $20,000, $30,000 to $40,000, if there is no break between now and selling time. The demand for Connecticut tobacco is enormous. H. S. Frye said recently in the office of the Courant that the United States in the present year will consume 8,000,000,000 cigars—eight billion, or eight thousand millions. The number passes comprehension. He attributes the great growth in cigar consumption to the general prosperity of the country, which permits more cigar-smoking.

Milking Cows by Machinery.

(From The Kansas City tSar.)

A test has been completed in the dairy department of the Kansas State Agricultural college which proves that milking machines are a success.

The machines were installed and the test conducted by Professor O. Erf, in charge of the state dairy work. The machines operate by means of vacuum. A three-horse power gasoline engine runs a vacuum pump which exhausts the air out of a system of pipes. These pipes run along the sides of the cows, and the milking machines are attached to these pipes by flexible hose.

The vacuum created by the pump runs a pulsator on the top of the can and this produces an intermittent suction in the cups attached to the teats of the cow. The suction draws the milk from the cow through the rubber tube and deposits it in the can. The milk is not exposed to the air, hence absolutely sanitary milk can be produced.

Sailor Dived and Not Seen Again.

New Orleans, September 24.—As the Southern Pacific Proteus, from New York to New Orleans, was entering the river today, George Hitchcock, a member of the crew, mounted the rail and sprang into the sea. The vessel was stopped but nothing further was seen of his. Hitchcock was from Nedfoundland. He shipped here several months ago.

NEW MEN USED ON MACON CARS

The Street Railway Employs Strike Breakers to Defeat the Union.

Macon, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—The officials of the Macon street railway system seem to have the strike situation well in hand today. Cars have been operated by strike breakers on all the lines today, and while there is not nearly a normal condition, fairly good schedules have been maintained. Manager Nyhan is steadily putting in new men, and running out additional cars.

No effort has been made to maintain regular schedules on any line, but the new men have been instructed so as to move regularly with the cars they have in hand, and the situation is somewhat relieved.

Again trouble has been looked for with the coming of nightfall. There are indications that the strikers and their sympathizers will be busy when work hours cease. Last night soap and grease were applied to the rails in abundance, and the men who operated the cars were busy trying to make the grades. In a manner they were successful, but more trouble is feared for tonight, and extra precaution has been taken.

Squads of police have been held in readiness for any emergencies, and the county authorities have also worked with a view of running down any person caught interfering with traffic on the lines. The railway officials have offered large rewards for information leading to the conviction of any one engaged in insulting passengers on the cars, or in any manner interfering with their operation.

Unless there is serious interference from some unlooked for point by tomorrow the management will have secured enough new men to make a good showing with the schedules, and if they are allowed to operate another day they may win out against the union.

There was a mass meeting at the city hall, called tonight by labor union leaders and the street car sympathizers. Many people attended these meetings, but strict order was preserved. N. D. May, president of the labor union, was heard in this meeting, as also was Benjamin Commons, the representative of the Amalgamated Street car Union. The strikers are evidently looking for the sympathy of the people again.

Fully twenty-five hundred laboring men heard the speakers at the meeting held tonight by the striking street car men and enthusiasm in their behalf ran high. Ben Commons was the leading man before the large body of people, following him Senator-elect Tom Felder spoke for nearly an hour in their behalf.

Hon. Joe Hall addressed the meeting as did President N. D. May, of the Central Labor Union.

Messrs. Hall and Felder went directly into the rights of the conductors and motormen and made a strong appeal for organized labor. All the speakers took it that the alleged discrimination against union men was a thrust at organized labor, and the sympathy of the people was sought in the fight which is being made. The crowds were orderly, but the loud applause revealed where the sympathy lay, and there is now little less than was expressed on former occasions.

Recorder Nottingham fined L. B. Kitchens, a young white man, $15 this morning for calling a strike-breaker a scab. This has incensed laboring people, and there is a deep feeling that may result in stronger expression before another day has passed. Chief Connor and a special detachment of police are in waiting for results, and will prepare to meet all emergencies.

The cars are practically all in tonight. There has been such feeling that no very strong determination is made to run the cars after dark. Very few people have patronized the cars today, and while early today there seemed a winning chance for the management, but it looks as if a turn has been made in the meeting of tonight which will altogether change results. Danger is looked for later in the night.
